Washington Roundup

Seizure of Montgomery Ward's by federal troops, is causing a furore in Washington today.

Sen. Bridges (R) N. H., will ask the Senate military affairs committee this morning to determine if President Roosevelt acted within the law in ordering the mail order firm taken over. Many other Republicans are expressing the same sentiments as Bridges and asking that the matter be probed.

The Republicans are taking time, however, to comment on the foreign policy speech in New York by Gov. Thomas E. Dewey. The New York State executive is viewed as having taken a long and important stride toward the white house on the basis of his declaration for postwar co-operation to erect a "peace structure" that will prevent future wars.

Sen. Green (D) R. I., chairman of the senate campaign funds investigating committee, says meanwhile his group will make a searching investigation of expenditures in the national political campaign which he believes will be heavy despite high income taxes.

On the diplomatic front, it is acknowledged officially that Sweden has been confronted with the threat of economic sanctions by the United Nations to force a stoppage of her shipments of ball-bearings to Germany.

Much interest is centered in Washington's vice trial, with Sunny Pitts, former Hollywood extra, scheduled to take the stand today. Miss Pitts earlier testified she took as much as $600 a week from well-to-do patrons to whom the Hopkins Institute, swank "call house," allegedly catered.

CAPTURED BASES ALREADY IN USE

By GEORGE LAIT
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR'S HEADQUARTERS, in New Guinea, April 28—Allied sights were set in the direction of the Philippines today after American forces put into operation the three strategic Hollandia airdromes on the north coast of New Guinea within 1,000 miles of southern Mindanao Island.

The fall of the main Hollandia airstrip and the fact that this field along with the previously captured Cyclops and Sentani airdromes had already been put in operation was announced in an official communique from headquarters of Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

Advances Campaign

The swift seizure appreciably advanced Gen. MacArthur's campaign to return to the Philippines. The general already had declared his intention to effect an early return to the islands and the seizure of the vital bases in Netherlands New Guinea marked a significant step in this direction.

Although it was not immediately disclosed what type of American craft were already using the three.

CHICAGO, April 28—Clement D. Ryan, president of Montgomery Ward & Co., today was barred from the company's property by helmeted army troops.

Soldiers guarding the general offices have been ordered to "keep Mr. Ryan out," Lt. Gilbert Cattanach announced.

The order, the lieutenant of military police said, was given by Undersecretary of Commerce Wayne C. Chase, who took charge of Ward's Chicago beat Ward counsel to the draw by obtaining a temporary injunction late last night restraining the Ward management from interfering in any manner with government operation of the huge Chicago plant.

Every attempt of Biddle and other government officials to obtain the records was thwarted at the plant by the management, obviously standing by Board Chairman Sewell L. Avery practically to a man.

It was a company stand entirely in character with that of Chairman.

Threat To Japanese Empire Is Increasing

By MAJOR PAUL C. RABORG
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK, April 28—Secretary of War Stimson has stated that the westward advance of Allied troops in northern New Guinea was a direct threat to the Japanese empire.

Mr. Stimson called attention to the fact that, with the capture of Hollandia, the great Japanese naval base at Palau and the southernmost island of the Philippines—Mindanao—were now within range of land-based Allied bombers.

Remarks True:
The secretary of war's remarks are true. Any other advance against the Japanese home islands from the east involves long distances across the waters of the Pacific which makes necessary the entire use of carrier-based planes. A task force can make a hit-run assault with comparative safety if it is of sufficient size and if there is insufficient enemy naval and air resistance.

In all of our recent attacks in the central and southwest Pacific, there has been insufficient Japanese naval and air resistance. But we

MOSCOW, April 28—Soviet forces are rapidly restoring their communications all along the battlefront today, according to dispatches from forward areas, and Moscow circles expected the prevailing lull in ground action to give away suddenly to a new and giant Russian offensive.

Tension Mounting

A Reuters dispatch from Moscow said tension is mounting in the Soviet capital as day after day no news is forthcoming concerning action at the front. The feeling is that events are moving silently behind official secrecy "towards the greatest climax of the war," possible an all-out drive keyed with the long-awaited western invasion of Europe.

Dispatches indicate intensive preparations being made behind the Russian front include particularly hurried communication reconstruction and replacement projects in the Chisinau and Iasi sectors, in Moldavia.

Impressive Solemn Pontifical Funeral Mass Is Conducted In Cathedral Of Holy Cross

By JAMES W. BAGLEY
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

BOSTON, April 28—An impressive solemn pontifical funeral mass, attended by a host of high church dignitaries, governors, members of Congress and business leaders, was celebrated today in the Cathedral of the Holy Cross for William Cardinal O'Connell.

The Most Rev. Amleto G. Cicognani was celebrant at the mass for the dean of the Catholic hierarchy in America, who died of bronchial pneumonia last Saturday, at the age of 84.

In moving words which were heard by 3,000 mourners in the church and millions throughout the country in a coast-to-coast radio broadcast, Most Rev. Richard J. Cushing, D. D., Auxiliary Bishop and Administrator of the Boston Archdiocese until the selection of a new head, paid tribute to the late Cardinal as a "great Priest."

After the ceremony, the body was borne four miles across the city in a funeral march through lanes of half a million persons bowing in reverence, to the final resting place. All Boston stores remained closed until noon.

This Afternoon

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, April 28.—Secretary of the Navy Frank Knox died today at his home in Washington.

Death was due to a heart attack. He was 70 years of age.

The secretary was first stricken with a heart attack last Sunday at Manchester, N. H., where he had gone to attend the funeral of J. A. Muehling, his partner of 40 years in the newspaper business.

He died at 1:08 p. m.

Knox suffered another severe attack Tuesday afternoon and was then brought to his Washington home and placed under the care of naval physicians. Another seizure early this morning weakened his condition and the end came later in the day.

The secretary's final illness was the third he had undergone during his entire life.

Knox's death was dramatically announced over the Navy department's loud speaking system, as reporters were officially notified. The

Preparations To Smash Japan Break Records

Greatest Concentration Of Warships, Planes, Men
Supplies In World History Reported

By CLINTON GREEN
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

PEARL HARBOR, April 28.—The greatest concentration of warships, planes, and men in the history of the Pacific has been assembled from widely separated ports for smashing Japan's inner perimeter defenses.

Huge stockpiles of supplies, hundreds of thousands of tons of shipping fill every available space and docking facility, while hidden in underground storage areas lie enough ammunition and explosives literally to blow Japan from the face of the earth.

Greatest In History

Never in all the world's wars has any nation assembled a naval force of the size which now flies the American flag as units lie at anchor, unmade their way through jammed harbors.

The writer had the opportunity last July to see the huge concentrations of warships in three big North African ports preparing for the invasion of Sicily. The number of warships in the Pacific from destroyers to aircraft carriers dwarfs in numbers and firing power the total concentration of those three North African ports.

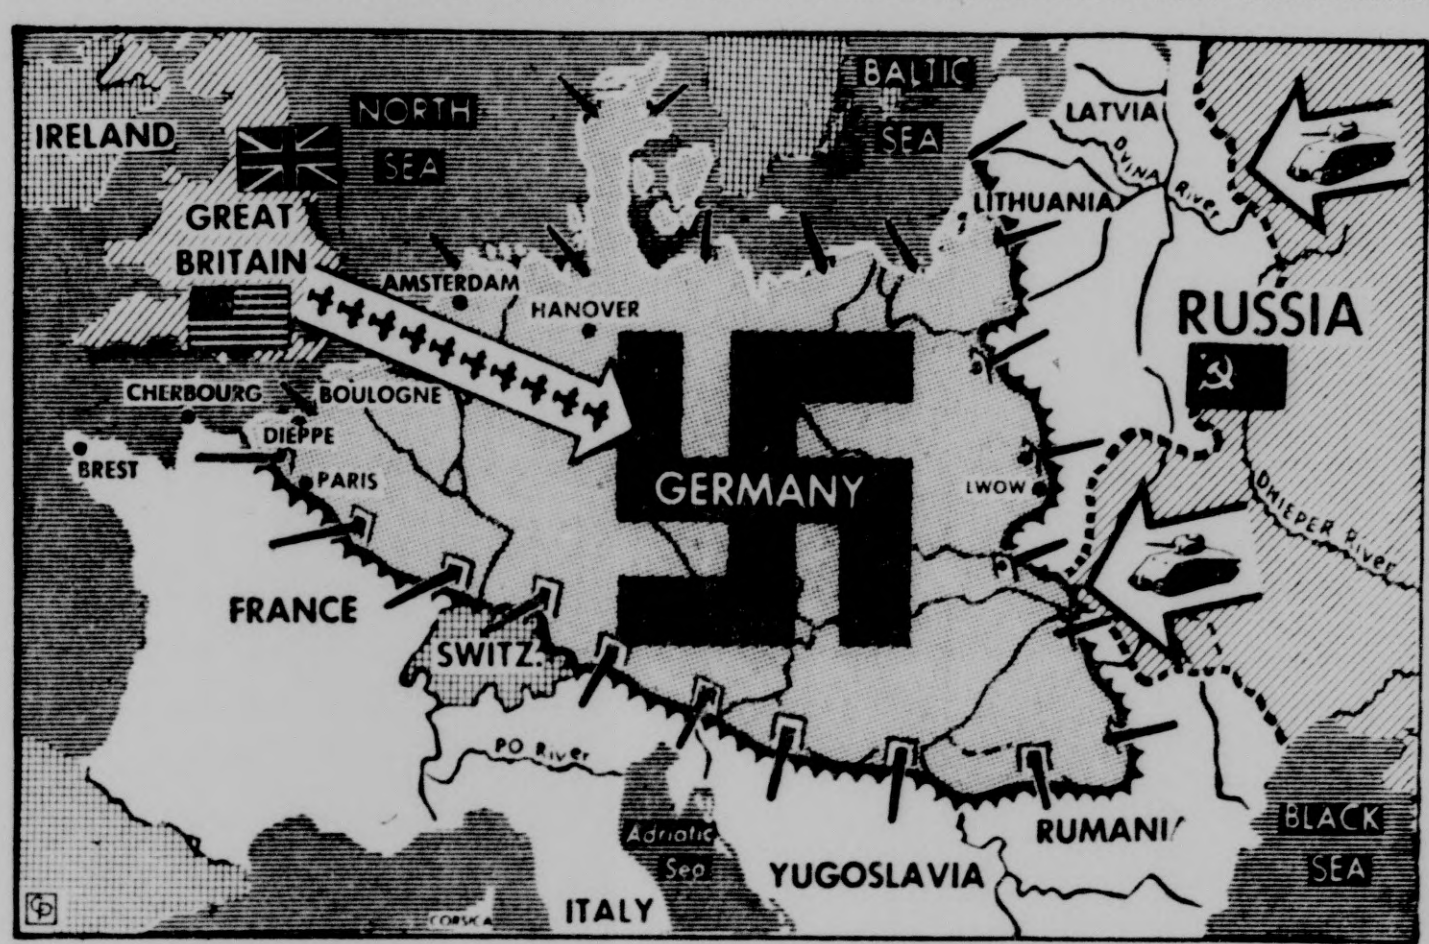

On one small island base planes are so jammed against one another, the storage area from a distance appears to be a tremendous

Flare-Up Of Infantry Battles Develops On Anzio Beachhead In Italy

NAZI SORTIES ARE CRUSHED BY YANKS

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

NAPLES, April 28.—(INS)—A flare-up in infantry battles on the Anzio beachhead below Rome during which American troops plunged into the German lines at three points and crushed two counter-sorties by the Nazis was reported officially today.

Stepped up patrol activity was reported also from the main Fifth Army front and from the Adriatic sector.

One Yank patrol, supported by tanks, raided German positions near Cisterna in the beachhead battle area. The infantry and mechanized forces withdrew after completion of the mission, taking with them six prisoners. They suffered no casualties themselves.

Another patrol on the right flank cleared German outposts four miles northwest of Littoria.

Raid Nazi Positions

A platoon also raided Nazi positions near Carano. This force withdrew after encountering heavy mortar fire.

Two small German attacks, one near Cisterna and the other in the Carano area, were broken up by Allied artillery and small arms fire.

On the central sector of the main Fifth Army front German patrols approaching Allied positions southeast of San Biagio and east of Terelle were driven off.

Allied mortar batteries engaged German working parties in the Monte Croce area.

Fifth Army artillery units hit two Nazi tank units southwest of Cassino, causing fires and explosions.

Spitfires continued to patrol the battle areas, and other Spitfires and Hurricanes again attacked the Durazzo radio station in Albania, hitting the main building and silencing German anti-aircraft guns.

All seven aboard the bomber were killed. Victims included Pfc. John M. Nodler, Philadelphia, Pa.

British Forces Make Gains In Kohima Area

By VINCENT DE SILVA
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

KANDY, Ceylon, April 28.—Several Japanese strong points were destroyed today when an English regiment, spearheading an Allied counter-offensive in the Kohima area of eastern India, blasted the Japanese from strategic positions. Capture of the enemy positions by the tank-supported British troops was announced in a communique from headquarters of Admiral Lord Louis Mountbatten, supreme commander for southeast Asia.

Warplanes Aid

The counter-thrusts to blast the Japanese from Assam province were accompanied by sorties by Allied warplanes which attacked Japanese positions in both the Kohima and Imphal areas.

At the same time Jap fighters and bombers swept the Kohima and Tula areas. One Jap plane definitely was destroyed, four were listed as probably destroyed and eight were damaged.

The Allies fought stubbornly to oust the Japanese units entrenched in the Kohima area and front detachments said they were making steady progress.

The attacks by the British and Indian forces were expected to precipitate a decisive battle which should be concluded before the start of the monsoon season within a few weeks.

Bitter Struggle Seen

The Imperial forces already have contacted the Japanese garrison and a bitter struggle is expected with the reinforced Japanese troops.

The Japs entrenched in hills near Kohima occupy jungles on either side of the Manipur road and were revealed to have received large reinforcements.

U. S. NINTH AIR FORCE
MARAUDEUR STATION, England

—Fifty 130 miles seven men, including First Lt. William V. McBride, Wampum, Pa., watched and waited, wondering when the right wing of Top Sarge would collapse and send the B-26 Marauder medium bomber to its death.

But Top Sarge, even with part of its right wing shot away and the remainder of the wing sagging dangerously, proved as tough and durable as any top kick and with expert handling by Capt. Glenn Grau, squadron commander in Col. Jack E. Caldwell's Ninth Air Force B-26 group, brought its crew back to an English base.

The first barrage of flak which hit Top Sarge on its recent bombing mission to Imuiden, port area in Holland, was just a teaser. It skyrocketed through the plane between the bombardier and pilot while the Marauder was on its bomb run. The second blast, which peeled the paint cleanly from the right side of the ship, killed the right engine, knocked out the electrical control system, aileron and rudder.

PITTSBURGH, April 28.—(INS)—The Pennsylvania Turnpike is "too modern" for the automobiles which use it, it was maintained today by Capt. J. G. McCann of the Pennsylvania Police.

Speaking at a meeting of the Western Pennsylvania Safety council and the American Society of Safety Engineers, Capt. McCann pointed out that the present-day car cannot stand the speeds possible on the highway over a long distance.

Furthermore, he said, motorists tend to become mesmerized when they drive a long distance in a single direction without stopping and are unable to react normally in emergencies.

By JOHN E. LEE
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

LONDON, April 28.—United States heavy, medium and light bombers conducted multiple assaults against Nazi airfields in France today, continuing into the 12th straight day the pre-invasion bombing of Europe which last night left the German aircraft center of Friedrichshafen a sea of flames.

Postress bombers, escorted by Eighth Air Force Thunderbolts and Mustangs, attacked a German air-drome at Avord, 150 miles south of Paris.

Medium Marauder bombers of the U. S. Ninth Air Force blasted a Nazi airfield in northern France. Lightning fighter-bombers of the Eighth Air Force attacked still another air-drome.

Drop 12,000 Tons Of Bombs

The relentless cross-channel aerial campaign which has seen an estimated 12,000 tons of high explosives dropped on Germany and occupied territory in the past 36 hours continued without let up. The possibility that one Nazi airfield hit was in the Paris area was seen in a broadcast by the German-operated Paris transmitter declaring that the area of the occupied French capital had been attacked.

Channel observers said strong forces of aircraft swept out in the direction of Pas De Calais, on the French coast, and Nazi transmitters indicated that the Reich proper again was under assault. In the wake of a blistering R. A. F. night attack on the aircraft center of Friedrichshafen and other objectives.

Senators Consider Legislative Drive To Halt Seizures

By WILLIAM E. ZIMMERMAN
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, April 28.—Republican senators today considered a drive for legislation to prohibit a recurrence of the action of President Roosevelt in seizing plants of the Montgomery Ward Co.

A conference of Republican senators condemned the seizure as "an infringement of constitutional rights."

Acting as spokesman for the conference after the meeting, Sen. Arthur H. Vandenberg of Michigan, said:

"The Republican senators agreed that the fundamental issue here transcends the Montgomery Ward case and has nothing to do with the war. In question of the fundamental rights of United States citizens either during the war or in time of peace. It is an open question among the senators as to whether or not the laws could be amended to prevent a recurrence of what we consider an infringement of constitutional rights."

While Mr. Roosevelt moved on advice of Attorney General Biddle that the anti-strike law and the Constitution justified his action, the Republican senators insisted that there is no grant of authority broad enough to cover the case.

THREAT TO JAPANESE EMPIRE IS INCREASING

know the empire of the Rising Sun has a large and very strong Navy still afloat. We know further that its war lords still have many air-planes. In other words, any future task force assault of ours could be met by very desperate and strong Nipponese resistance. When that occurs, carrier based planes may not be as effective as they have been in past operations.

Support of Land Planes

However, any Allied advance westward through New Guinea to Celebes or Borneo, and thence northward to the Philippines is a route of attack against the Japanese home islands which, by means of the small intermediate islands, may be supported for its entire length by land-based planes. Therefore, such a route, regardless of any conditions of Japanese ability to defend, is definitely aimed straight at, and is therefore a serious threat to the very existence of the Japanese empire. That threat is being made much more effective by the rapidly increasing distance of each of the leap-frog advances of General MacArthur's units.

The recent fighting in the Hollandia area is the most interesting example of cramped land, sea and air combat.

General MacArthur is not only fond of by-passing and the use of leap-frog tactics, but is a great believer in the efficacy of squeeze attacks.

No sooner was this most western offensive launched, which has captured the first Netherlands Japanese-held territory, than the air units of the southwest Pacific command struck at the Kamiri airdrome on the Geelvink Bay, 400 miles above Hollandia.

That's to stop Japanese air interference from the west and also points out the direction of General drive.

The Navy announced for the first time Thursday that Knox was ill, had returned to Washington and, upon advice of his physician, cancelled all of his appointments. The Navy at that time characterized his ailment as "a gastro-intestinal upset complicated with dizziness."

Deaths of the Day

Lorenzo Miller

Lorenzo Miller, aged 71 years, of 221 East Moody avenue, died in Orlando, Fla., Thursday morning, after a lingering illness.

Mr. Miller was born in Madison, Ind., October 4, 1872, son of Louis and Julia Bolden Miller. For the past 25 years he has been the butler of Mrs. Grace Phillips Johnson. He was a member of the Second Baptist church.

Surviving are a son, Herbert A. Miller, of Detroit, Mich.; three sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Shelton, Madison, Ind.; Mrs. Frances Burdon, Cleveland; Mrs. Supporia Burnett, this city; and several nieces and nephews.

The body will arrive here, and will be taken to the Jos. S. Rice company chapel. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Rail Centers Attacked

The air ministry announced that Stuttgart, rail and industrial center in southern Germany, and railway yards including those at Montzen in Belgium and Aulnoye in France had been attacked by the bomber command forces which went out during the night "in very great strength." Other craft mined enemy waters.

The night operations cost the RAF 36 planes. At least four Nazi night fighters were shot down.

The weather was clear over Friedrichshafen and first reports indicated the bombing was well concentrated. One pilot described the city as "a sea of fire."

The air ministry revealed that the heavy Lancaster bombers which assaulted Friedrichshafen made a round-trip circuitous route of well over 1,000 miles.

Lancaster crew members reported that on the last lap back to England German fighters were extremely active.

Axis transmitters indicated planes of the Mediterranean air force may have engaged in a two-way night assault on the continent.

The latest strike by the RAF saw an estimated 6,000 Allied warplanes unload some 12,000 tons of high explosives on enemy territory in the past 36 hours.

The Nazi agency DNB admitted that the RAF had conducted a forceful assault against the Reich at night.

Heavy bombers of the United States Eighth Air Force carried the main weight of record daylight assaults yesterday against occupied France. In a "double-header" operation fortress and liberator bombers blasted the Nazi air fields at Nancy and Toul and also hit railway yards at Blamville and Chalons-Sur-Marne.

WARD OFFICIALS MAY ALL RESIGN

Avery, who refused to cooperate with government-management and was forcibly ejected by military police stationed at the plant.

Since the injunction provides that Ward officials must obey orders of Wayne Chatfield Taylor, undersecretary of commerce, their wholesale resignations were foreseen as possibly placing them all in contempt of court.

Their practically unanimous rejoinder was:

"There is nothing in the law to prevent us from resigning. We are not frozen in our positions."

Leslie F. Crews, retail comptroller, declared:

"I will support Mr. Avery. I am sure the other officers intend to. I think we will all walk out rather than cooperate with the government, depending, of course, on the turn of events."

A counter blow by Montgomery Ward's was expected to fall today or tomorrow with filing of a petition for an injunction to restrain Taylor and other Washington officials from entering the plant on the ground they are "trespassers."

Dramatic Events

The injunction granted the government was only one of a dramatic series of rapid-fire events in the battle between Federal authorities and Ward's.

The first was the seizure of the plant on President Roosevelt's executive order and with the aid of a platoon of armed military police-men. Then came the forcible eviction of Avery, then the government's surprise petition for an injunction.

Stealing a march on the militant Avery, Attorney General Francis E. Biddle applied for the injunction against Avery and 15 other company officials in Federal District Court late yesterday only a few minutes before closing time.

Then, in a proceeding almost unparalleled in Federal courts, a night hearing was held at which Federal Judge William H. Holly granted the temporary injunction at 10:50 p. m.

So unusual was the night hearing that Judge Holly felt called upon to explain formally at some length why he had consented to it.

The emergency of the situation, the possibility of irreparable damage to the government's administration of the vast business if there were delay, and the likelihood that the rights of the United States as a sovereign power might be violated.

The injunction was for 10 days only, but Judge Holly gave Avery and his company associates the privilege of coming into court at 2 o'clock this afternoon to fight for dissolution or modification of the restraining order.

big Hollandia fields, the communication revealed a heavy strike by Liberator bombers against the Japanese airdrome 670 miles to the northwest.

"The operation can now be regarded as completed," said Gen. MacArthur's official announcement disclosing that the Hollandia fields had been put to use by the Allies only six days after the start of the greatest amphibious campaign in the Southwest Pacific.

Spotty Resistance

The swift major victory was achieved against only spotty Japanese resistance since the Nipponese had been duped into guessing that the offensive against Hollandia was going to fall in the Wewak area to the east.

The Hollandia airdrome, largest of three adjacent fields, was taken in a pincers drive in which columns from Humboldt Bay and from Tanahmerah Bay effected a junction.

"The enemy's resistance has ceased and disorganized and demoralized enemy troops have fled inland to the southwest," Gen. MacArthur announced triumphantly.

Jap units numbering several thousand troops which had been garrisoned in the Tanahmerah and Hollandia areas scattered into the hills where they now face death by starvation and disease.

Six Day Offensive

The six-day water and land offensive cost the Japs 274 dead and 24 prisoners, including a sub-lieutenant of the Imperial Japanese navy.

The successful mopping up in the Hollandia area was accompanied by a fresh victory scored by Australian jungle forces which marched into Madang 400 miles southeast of the Hollandia area.

The continued Allied air attacks involved, in addition to the strike at Jap airdrome, a sortie north of Manokwari, 470 miles west of Hollandia, where two coastal vessels were destroyed by strafing.

Wewak was blasted by 60 tons of bombs in a raid concentrated on four Jap airdromes, Bivouac and supply areas were hit at Hansa Bay. Rabaul, battered Jap base on New Britain, also came under fresh assault.

drive was launched above the vital rail junction of Lasi. Later, as customary, the supplemental communique gave details of purely local engagements.

Red army artillery and motorized infantry were credited with smashing many tank-passed attacks by German forces probing for a weak spot in the Russian lines southeast of the Stanislaw in Old Poland.

"Our men, by fire and counterblows, threw the enemy back everywhere to his initial positions," added the supplemental bulletin.

At Sevastopol, Russian Black Sea warships and aircraft of the fleet continued to bombard enemy vessels in the beleaguered Crimean port and on the open sea. On the land approaches to the city, the Red Army ousted the stubbornly resisting Germans "yard by yard."

Moscow, April 28.—(INS)—Front-line dispatches reported today that red army troops have slammed across the Prut river below Iasi, Rumania, in a new sector. German defenders were ousted from a line of fortified strongpoints on the right bank of the river, the dispatch added.

were cooperating closely in the hill country and the appearance of tanks in seemingly impossible places appeared to be unnerving the Japs.

Several well-dug positions in the Manipur hills were given up by the Japs to the advancing Allies.

Inside Burma Chinese forces pressed their campaign in the direction of Myitkyina by sending additional troops across the Lakhwar river despite strong Japanese resistance.

Allied aircraft smashing at Jap shipping destroyed 34 river craft and many barges.

junk pile. One would expect the island to disappear beneath the ocean under the weight of equipment and supplies.

Secret Weapons

Secret weapons will be in the hands of trained men.

Airforce authorities a few months ago exhibited some of these secret weapons to war correspondents. Beyond saying that some of the weapons employ the rocket principle, information cannot be released at this time for security reasons.

This much may be said: In use against duplicates of fortifications types encountered by our forces the weapons have proved shattering effective.

We are now "playing" in the enemy's front yard and we've got big "toys."

controls, blew off the right nacelle and tore five feet off the wing including the right wing flap. It killed the tail gunner and observer, and badly wounded the turret gunner.

Second Burst Deadly

"We had just dropped our bombs and were feeling proud of our good results when that second barrage of flak hit us," Captain Grau, pilot from Brookville, O., said as he described the blast which killed two of the nine-man crew the plane was carrying.

"It felt as though someone had picked me up by the seat of the pants and tossed me 100 feet in the air."

Top Sarge shuddered, took a rocking horse gait for a while and then settled down as Grau worked with what controls he had left.

Prantic waving from the bombardier in the nose of a Marauder which pulled alongside Top Sarge attracted the attention of First Lieut. Carl Cooper, bombardier, Cedarhurst, Ga., and Lieutenant McBride, bombardier-navigator, son of Mrs. Ray McBride, Box 8, Wampum, who were in the nose of Grau's ship. The bombardier in the nearby plane waved again and then used a grease pencil to print on the inside of the plexi-glass nose the warning "don't lower your landing gear or flaps."

Pilot Shows Skill

"I knew that pencilled warning meant my crippled plane was in worse shape than we imagined," Grau said. "I thought for a while of going back to Holland and dropping the crew out but decided not to because of the distance involved."

The Marauder was still chugging along when Grau spotted a friendly convoy of ships. After telling his men to inflate the wounded gunner's Mae West and bail out, he told them he would ditch the plane near the convoy and push the wounded man through the hatch. A beach Grau saw at that moment changed his plans again and he decided to crash land on the beach.

Gräu had dropped down to 200 feet and was coming in for the beach landing when he noticed an airfield just beyond the beach. He came in ten feet over the tree tops, then through a cutout made in a clump of trees, to bring his plane down for a perfect belly landing.

Top Sarge had made it home on its sixty-fourth mission.

WINK-WISNER CHURCH WEDDING

At a lovely wedding Thursday evening at the First Baptist church, Miss Thelma C. Wink, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Wink, West Washington street extension, became the bride of George G. Wisner, of Highland avenue, son of George A. Wisner, of Scranton, and the late Mrs. Wisner.

The single ring ceremony was performed at 7:30 by Rev. Oliver W. Hurst, pastor of the church, assisted by Rev. J. A. Tinker, of Swissvale. Palms, ferns and white snapdragons banked the altar.

The bride wore a train-length ivory satin gown. Her finger-length veil fell from a coronet of orange blossoms and she carried white roses and gardenias. She was given in marriage by her father.

Rev. Everett Spring was soloist and sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly." Organ music was played by Mrs. W. H. Lukhart.

Miss Dorothy Wink, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a gown of pink marquisette, with a blue flower headpiece and carried pink roses. Best man for the groom was Robert Smith, of Girard, O.

An open house reception for 100 guests at the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony. Spring flowers decorated the house. Buffet refreshments were served, with Mrs. Paul Allen, Mrs. George Abraham, Mrs. Edward Reynolds and Mrs. Fred Palmer as aids.

After May 2 Mr. and Mrs. Wisner will be at home to friends at their apartment, 1208 Highland avenue. She is a graduate of Union high school and attended Chicago Evangelistic institute for two years. She is employed in the office of the Johnson Bronze company. Mr. Wisner graduated from Valley Forge Military academy. He is employed at the Baltimore and Ohio railroad.

Out-of-town guests were George G. Wisner, of Scranton, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Wink, of Akron, Rev. Miss J. A. Tinker, of Swissvale, Miss Donna Jean Ashton, of Beaver, Mrs. Anne Nelson, of Scranton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blair, of Harrisville, and Robert Smith, of Girard.

Washington Calling

By
MARQUIS CHILDS

Sees Willkie Factor By MARQUIS CHILDS

WASHINGTON, April 28.—Wendell Willkie may have been eliminated from the Republican race for the presidential nomination, but what course he follows in the fall could determine the success or failure of the G.O.P. nominee.

This is the view of Elmo Roper, whose scientific public opinion polls for Fortune magazine have been remarkably accurate. While Roper has not gone so far as to estimate the specific number of voters who might be swayed by Willkie's decision, he says it is substantial—seven million.

Believing, in general, in the social objectives of the New Deal and in international collaboration, they nevertheless look with abhorrence on a fourth term. If, however, they thought that Willkie had conducted he couldn't compromise his principles to vote for the Republican nominee, they would follow him.

It would have to be Roper points out, on a matter of principle that these voters—three to four million possibly—give intelligent study to the problems of our time. If they decided that Willkie was swayed by personal resentment, then they would not follow him.

Letter Shows Trend

In a small way, I've had confirmation of this in letters that have come to me as a result of columns I wrote on Willkie. These letters expressed the point of view Roper talks about. The following is from a couple in Boston:

"Don't forget many of us are still interested in Wendell Willkie and always will be. Is it too late to have him drafted? We cannot reconcile the fact that he won't be president this year."

The following is from a woman in Illinois:

"My husband is a fool and die maker at the bank company here. We are church goers and perhaps more serious-minded than most people. We are the much talked of 'independent voter' and we do not like the way our government has done many things but seem to have no means of making our will effective. My husband belongs to the union as a matter of cooperating with his fellow workers, but the position of labor leaders seldom represents his ideas."

This is from a woman in a small town in Michigan:

"After reading your column I am impelled to say that I hope Mr. Willkie is not judging the whole Middle West by the Germans in Milwaukee. His friends here have been stunned by his sudden withdrawal and while we cannot blame him for it, we still hope that events may reverse his decision."

Willkie in this interval is wisely saying nothing. Not even to his closest friends has he given a hint of what course he will pursue. While he may talk on policy, it would be surprising if he were to take any positive step before the Republican convention in June.

But he will do a lot of listening and looking. Whether he can accept Governor Dewey, who is to be the nominee unless some wholly unforeseeable accident occurs, is the difficult question that Willkie must answer in the next two months.

On Thursday night, Dewey is making a widely heralded speech before the bureau of advertising of the American Newspaper Publishers Association. It will be his first public utterance since it became apparent, with Willkie's withdrawal, that there would be no serious contest for the nomination.

As such, it will be very thoroughly dissected. Whatever he says—even if he says nothing—he's bound to jar somewhat the present harmony within his party. It's a little awkward to be so conspicuously the champ at this advanced date.

Important as Dewey's utterances are, he is bound to follow now on Willkie and the liberal who look as he does are likely to look for more than words. They will be skeptical of words, remembering the tragedy of 1920 when liberal leaders in the party—William Allen White, Charles Evans Hughes, Elihu Root and others of equal stature—told the public that the way to take the United States into the League of Nations was to elect Warren Harding. Harding had other ideas, or the people around him had.

Liberals within the G.O.P. will be puzzled by the fact that one of Dewey's chief backers is Ruth Hanan, McCormick's Stinson, who held the American first point of view. They will find it hard to understand how she can be on the same band wagon with such an internationalist, for example, as John Foster Dulles.

These independent voters are doing some sober thinking. The responsibility for the decision in November may be theirs.

A doctor said a child of 36 months would "probably be all right" after drinking a pint of whiskey. He guessed right; it is in Heaven.

There is special need of camps not very far from congested centers of population for thousands of children who don't belong to any of the community character-building groups. There should be special efforts to place indigent children in these camps and other children whose parents have rather limited means; and children of mothers who are working outside the home.

With adequate community interest stirred up, it should not be hard to raise the necessary funds through contributions. But why should there not be such services for children done with public funds? Some far-seeing mayors and councilmen might discover ways in which public money so spent would be good public economy. A dollar spent on this means of preventing delinquency and crime would probably save ten or twenty dollars which would have to be spent later on delinquency and crime. Before this war is over some governors and state legislatures may wake up to see how they might provide public funds for summer camps for children.

More Play Leaders

We also need more playground leaders for next summer than ever before. Though in some areas more play places are very desirable, the larger problem now is to man nearly all the playgrounds and recreation centers we have. When our children need leaders most we have fewer of them than we have had for many years. With so many of our play leaders called elsewhere for immediate war needs, we should have more volunteers from among those who have had some training or at least understand children, and are willing to make personal sacrifices and take responsibility.

For tots and children of elementary school age, churches can provide many wholesome programs, such as the vacation church school free and open to all children in the immediate neighborhood. There should be scores of these this coming summer in many areas which had only one or two last summer. While we are opening "youth centers" for the youth 15 to 18 let us also provide supervised recreation for the age-range 12 to 14, especially during the coming summer.

Tuition Camps

More children than heretofore whose parents can afford to send them to private summer camps, should attend this summer, especially at the age range of 12 to 14. (Continued On Page Five)

The World and the Mud Puddles

VERY SERIOUS

If any additional evidence of confusion in the Supreme Court has been needed these last few months, it was provided in the 5-4 decision on the Kentucky banking case. Not because of the split of opinion in this case outstanding, but rather because the minority attacked the majority and in a hostile statement charged it with attempts to curtail the legislative powers of Congress.

The case involved some three thousand stockholders of the defunct National Bank of Kentucky, who had exchanged shares in Banco Kentucky, a holding company. The court ruled in its majority opinion that these stockholders were liable to double assessment of the bank. It also held that stockholders of Banco Kentucky, who had paid cash for their shares, also were liable. The total assessment is four million dollars.

The opinion was based upon the court's majority view that enforcement of the liability was necessary "lest the protection afforded by these double liability provisions be lost through transfers to impetuous or not fully responsible holding or operating companies whose stock is owned by the transferor." It held that bank stockholders who accepted Banco Kentucky stock in exchange still retained control of the bank.

Neither the majority or minority opinion of the court contained that Congress covered this specific type of case when it legislated on bank holding companies. The split arose over the majority groups contention and ruling that the policy of Congress had been to impose double liability upon stockholders.

The dissenting opinion charged that the "court is not enforcing a policy of Congress; it is competing with Congress in creating new regulations in banking, a field peculiarly within legislative rather than judicial competence."

There is no intention here to argue the merits of this particular case. The point is that the majority opinion admittedly is not an interpretation of law because no law exists which covers this particular point in the case. Rather, it is an attempt by the court to step in and, in the absence of legislation, to set up a law. It, therefore, becomes an effort by the legislature as well as the judicial branch of the government.

It is risky business, indeed, for the Supreme Court to begin ruling upon what it thinks Congress may have had in mind rather than what Congress actually had enacted into law. It is risky because it subjects the nation to a government by court decree.

The government of the United States constitutionally is composed of three equal branches—the legislative, the executive and the judicial. It has been regarded for more than one hundred sixty years that the founding fathers, who wrote the Constitution, had in mind, say, one or two would act as a check

Post-War Tax Study Still In Research Stage
Victory Reported Near For Petrillo And Union
Truman And Taft Are Two Potent Dark Horses

By HELEN ESSARY
(Central Press Columnist)

WASHINGTON, April 28.—War Mobilizer James F. Byrnes was premature in saying in a speech delivered in New York last week that an international committee was working under the direction of secretary of the treasury on a post-war tax problem.

Investigation of what this committee is doing disclosed that the whole matter of post-war tax studies is still in the research stage, and that it probably will be some time before it reaches the policy-making stage.

Treasury officials revealed that the studies revolve around the conditions which will exist as the war draws to an end, ushering in the era of transition to a peace-time economy. Not until a clear picture is assembled of the transition picture will actual post-war tax proposals be ready for submission to congress.

Meanwhile, study of the situation will continue, and if a precipitate collapse of Germany should occur, bringing conditions that would require changes in the corporation tax laws to speed the transition to peace-time production, the treasury will have suggestions to present to the House ways and means committee.

A certain amount of investigation of the post-war tax problem is under way in Congress. Representative Daniel A. Reed (R.) of New York is chairman of a special committee of House Republicans at work on a post-war tax program.

Recording Decision Near

James Caesar Petrillo, shrewd boss of the musicians union, has waged one of the cleverest fights on record to obtain royalty payments to his union's unemployment fund. Victory is almost within his grasp, barring an upset decision by the War Labor Board.

When the union's contract expired in the summer of 1942, Petrillo demanded new agreements which provided for payment of one-fourth cent on each photograph record to the union unemployment fund. He prohibited his members from making any more records until this demand was met.

After more than a year of idleness, Decca finally gave in and signed such a contract. This placed Petrillo in a favorable position. Although Victor and Columbia refused to sign on his terms, he was unworried.

The wily union chief well knew that Decca, which once had only about a third of the record business, could step up production and make all the records needed and provide his members with employment.

However, Victor and Columbia intervened and asked the War Labor Board to end the musicians' strike. A panel recommended such a course and now the whole WLB is debating whether to issue the order.

Two Dark Horses

If such an order were issued, Petrillo's victory with Decca would vanish into thin air. The Decca agreement contains a "most favored nation" clause which would enable Decca to get out of the royalty provision if the musicians went to work for its competitors on different terms.

It is now about a 50-50 proposition as to whether the board will hand him his first setback in 20 months of battling.

Two Dark Horses

Pre-convention band-wagons are rolling westward toward Chicago pulling in their wake at least two potent, though unwilling and unambitious, dark horses.

They are Senator Robert A. Taft (R.) of Ohio, runner-up of the GOP nomination in Philadelphia in 1940, and Senator Harry S. Truman (D.) of Missouri, chairman of the Senate's famed war investigation committee.

Neither wants to run on the major ticket when the chips are down in November's war-time elections. However, each may find himself "dratted."

Taft, currently has hitched his powerful political wagon to the star of Ohio Governor, John W. Bricker. In event of a convention deadlock, the lightning might easily strike in Taft's direction. Right now Taft's ambition is to be permanent GOP leader in the Senate.

Truman may be drafted by Democratic delegates as a vice presidential candidate. A staunch fourth-term supporter, Truman would win western votes in doubtful states.

HONEY

Sugar is a very important part of our diet. It is easily digested and very nutritious.

There are several different kinds of sugar. The main ones are cane sugar, beet sugar, milk sugar, grape sugar, malt sugar and honey.

The only practical difference for eating purposes is in the taste and cost.

They all have about the same amount of nourishment measured in calories. Six teaspoons supply about 100 calories.

They do not contain minerals, protein or vitamins to any appreciable extent.

Honey has a different taste from the other sugars. It affords a pleasing variety.

In diabetes it acts just the same as the other sugars.

LOOKING AT LIFE

By ERICH BRANDEIS

While waiting for my elevator this noon, I couldn't help overhearing two of our girls, Helen and Vera. "How does your fellow like the army?" Vera asked.

"Oh, he likes it fine," said Helen, "and the thing that tickles me is how they make him like anything they give him to eat."

"He used to be awfully finicky about his food. It made me scared about marrying him. He'd be so hard to cook for. But now it's going to be a cinch."

Just then the elevator came, and I didn't hear the rest.

But there, in a couple of minutes, I had learned a lot about marriage. To a lot of girls marriage is something like the newspaper advertisements for silverware and cosmetics.

There's always the gorgeous looking bride, dressed in satin and orange blossoms, with a dashing bridegroom in the background and a beautiful church or a sumptuous mansion somewhere in the picture.

Is Not Marriage

That, dear reader, is not marriage. Marriage is just what Helen said about it: "He'd be so hard to cook for."

Marriage is the routine way of living, a lot of chores, plenty of trouble, a repetition of meals, of laundry, of bills, of the same man and the same woman together, for better or worse, day after day, till death or divorce do them part.

I think if there is less dreaming and more thinking about marriage, there would be more happy marriages.

Christmas comes but once a year—and the wedding day should come only once in a life time.

And after the first is laid away, the kitchen apron is put on. The alarm clock takes the place of the wedding bells, the carrots and potatoes of tonight's dinner are the bride's bouquet of every-day existence.

Oh, there is lots of room for love. But it is love born of companionship, of mutual respect, of sharing joys and troubles with each other, not the love of glamor girl for glamor boy.

So before you think of setting married, picture yourselves in that little home of yours—picture him as a fellow who has to eat, who has to have a clean shirt, who wants a decent home, a friendly wife, a normal life.

And picture her as you have seen your mother hundreds of times—busy with a hundred petty details, willing to give and to take—getting jealous as she gets older.

That, my friends, is marriage. (Copyright, 1944, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

GARDEN EXCITEMENT

If excitement you are seeking you can get it in the yard. Just by spading up a section and devoting it to cabbages.

If you're now too old for service in our forces, land or sea, Set a space with corn and lettuce and in battle soon you'll be. For a good green thing grows growing in your nicely measured rows.

You will find them being threatened by the savages of foes.

If adventure you are seeking now that travel is denied, Plan a patch with peas and cabbage on feet long and four feet wide.

And your courage will be tested, and likewise your will to win. For when good green things start growing, cruel forces come marching in.

You'll fight crawling things and flying, foes that chew and tear and gnaw.

And some most amazing creatures And you have never seen before.

If you really long for warfare, and you think your life is dull, Every garden is an arena where there never comes a lull.

Though your patch of soil seemed puny, barren, bleak and sum-mery-brown.

You will find with life it's teeming both above and under ground.

For when once you have it planted, to keep anything that grows, You will have to fight a battle with the most astounding foes.

Swiss Horrified By Huge Bombing Of German City

Attack On Friedrichshafen Vividly Reported In Swiss Newspaper

By ERNEST ZAUGG
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)
BERN, April 28.—Swiss residents on the shores of Lake Constance were horrified by the extent of last night's RAF bombing of the German aircraft city of Friedrichshafen, the Neuenfurter Zeitung said today.

Declaring that "all eye and ear witnesses will remember these hours of horror all their lives," the Swiss newspaper said the bombing began at 12:45 a. m.

Suddenly wave after wave of bombers played "hacchoud" of orange-colored flares, which erupted in the air to form a huge, fantastic Christmas-tree-shaped glare.

Swiss Hike
In the terrific bombing, all the heavens and earth seemed turning into one "fiery revolution." The roar of planes, bombs and anti-aircraft batteries created such a deafening noise that the Swiss hid in the cellars of their homes.

The houses on the Swiss side of the lake shook, and in many the glassware and windows were shattered.

A thousand-yard-high cloud of smoke spread across Lake Constance, darkening the entire Swiss sky and after one hour Friedrichshafen was described as "one tremendous sea of flames."

Reports from within the city said "time bombs" exploded for hours afterwards.

Further away, Manzell was said to have been formed into a similar purgatory while at Immenstaad and Ravensburg the skies were reported still aflame until morning.

In the Romanshorn area, the ground was covered with burned debris and ashes as though after a volcanic eruption.

New Type Life
Raft Is Tested
Sailors Test New Raft That Has
'All The Comforts Of Home'

By RICHARD SHANER
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)
NEW YORK.—The Merchant Marine has a new type life raft, almost guaranteed to bring joy to any shipwrecked sailor.

The raft has "all the comforts of home," including a small charcoal-burning stove for cooking and a morale kit to help pass the time while awaiting rescue.

Carries Up To 20 Men
In four water-tight compartments there are enough food and water supplies to last a month. Of all-metal construction, the life-saver weighs 3,500 pounds and will carry up to 20 men.

It is 18x8x3 feet in size and one of the best features is that it is reversible. Built by the Globe American Co., the raft is called the Kokomo life saving "kraft".

The raft can be released by remote control or by automatic float control. This latter method, in which the life-saver floats free of the ship when the water rises over it, eliminates the hazard of rafts sinking with the ship.

Self-Bailing Device
The Coast Guard gave a recent demonstration of the raft in the New York area. It plunged 45 feet off a ship's deck, then bobbed to the surface nearby. The "survivors" went aboard and were kept dry by a self-bailing gadget.

They loosened the oars and the mast from the sides, and dug into the cache of supplies, which included food and water in hermetically-sealed cans, waterproof cushions, blankets, a lantern, flares, a sail and a canopy.

They hoisted a bright yellow sail and rigged the canopy to keep themselves warm and dry. From one of the compartments they pulled out the morale kit, equipped with a Bible, song book, pencils, playing cards, smoking tobacco, cigarette papers and chewing gum.

THE PARENT PROBLEM

I wish there were more such camps where children were strictly disciplined, trained in good manners and made to do some hard work with their hands a few hours a day, including some normal drudgeries. All play and no work can make Jack and Jill lazy, irresponsible boys and girls.

If you have a boy or girl you are sure would profit from a summer at camp, and can afford to send him but he doesn't want to go, tell him once and without argument he will go and apprise him of the opening date. Then make your word good. Children who want least to go to a summer camp need it most, as a rule. A difficulty is going to be that good camp counselors are scarce, which means that parents who select a private camp will want to exercise more than usual thought and caution in its selection.

Solving Parent Problems

Q What is a good test of wholesome parent-child relationship when there is company?
A How naturally the parents act when their children engage in conversation with the guest.

G. D.: Would you advise sudden weaning of my daughter — 6 months old? She nurses breast and I would like to put her on the bottle so I could visit my husband who is stationed at a Navy depot.

Answer: Six months is the proper time for weaning, but sudden weaning is uncomfortable for the mother, sometimes causing full and engorged breasts, and often frets the baby. A two to four week period is advised to make the complete change from breast to bottle.

Q You often applaud parents who train their growing child to help at home. I wish you would tell me just how to proceed to get results?

A I have, as you must know, tried to offer suggestions to this end in my column. Moreover I treat the matter quite at length in a special bulletin, "How To Teach The Child To Help At Home" to be had for postage by writing me at 235 East 45th Street, New York City, enclosing a self-addressed envelope with a three-cent stamp on it.

THE WORLD AND THE MUD PUDDLES

and balance upon the other. Congress could legislate, the executive would administer and the judiciary would interpret the law. No one branch would be supreme, and this provision has been held to be one of the great protective devices against tyranny and one-man rule.

We have seen strenuous attempts made in the last eleven years to break down this system. We saw it first in the attempt by the executive to "pack" the Supreme Court with members more in sympathy with his "ideals" than were the justices at that time. There was no argument, even then, that the court was not justly interpreting the law. The plea was that its members were old-fashioned and that the Court's approach to social problems should be modernized.

The method of gaining outright control of the Court failed at the time, but deaths and resignations enabled the executive to achieve the same objective. Similar efforts were made to dominate Congress, but the legislative branch recently rebelled.

The Supreme Court has, for the last few months, been going far afield in arriving at some of its decisions. It has reversed itself and, as one jurist explained it, has so confused the issues before it that the lower courts are left helpless. They have nothing by which they can be guided, for today's majority opinion may be reversed tomorrow, or the next time a comparable case arises.

It is to be expected that the Court will split on its decisions. This is disturbing only when one faction accuses the other of usurping legislative powers and, thereby, through such intemperate attacks, give public evidence of confusion in the one branch of government where calm judgment should prevail.

Declare War On Tax-Evasion Plan

Allegheny County Commissioners
Say Thousands Of Dollars
In Taxes Lost

PITTSBURGH, April 28.—(INS)—Allegheny county's commissioners have declared war upon an ancient tax-evasion racket that has cost the county treasury hundreds of thousands of dollars since 1936.

The racket was exposed when Revenue Director Frank Kane reported the method.

Mortgage holders institute foreclosures of defaulted mortgages and the property is sold by the sheriff.

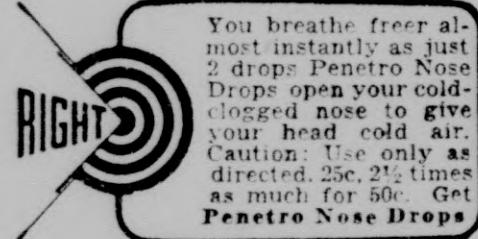

The property is bid in by the mortgage holder at cost plus the amount of the mortgage.

The sheriff orders the former owner to vacate, and the mortgage holder takes possession. Although the law requires that the new owner pay his bid price to the sheriff within 10 days and lift the deed which the sheriff's office prepares, the racketeers beat the law.

They only pay the sheriff's costs, take over the property and start collecting rents, but do not lift the deed. They pay no taxes, nor do they pay the amount bid for the property. They may continue in possession for many years, as long as nobody takes legal action against them.

The Allegheny county commissioners have decided to take judgment against the holders of such properties selecting the most flagrant cases for immediate action.

VICTORY GARDEN NOTES

By LEWIS C. DAYTON,
County Agent

"BEANS ARE SENSITIVE TO COLD; PLANT LATE"

Because beans, found in virtually every home garden, are sensitive to cold, they should not be planted until the ground warms permanently and there is no more danger of frost.

An old custom was to delay planting beans until the leaves appear on the trees, or about the middle of May.

Bush beans include the green round pod, green flat pod, wax round pod, and wax flat pod, beside the lima beans, green shells, dry shell or field beans, with equivalents in nearly all types in the pole bean varieties. As a result, each gardener has ample choice, not only of the kinds to be raised, but also in prolific varieties, affording palatable kitchen uses in many forms. In addition many gardeners are adding soybeans to the garden crops this year.

How much to plant is largely an individual problem, but it is almost impossible to have too many beans on hand for winter use, over and above those used fresh from the garden during the summer months. By timing new planting, a new crop can be ready every few weeks, since beans can be harvested from 48 to 70 days after planting, depending on the kind and variety used.

Use of fertilizer with beans is recommended, but not mixing fresh commercial fertilizer in the row, directly in contact with the seed. Small amounts may be mixed with the soil, but a safer plan is to place the fertilizer in a small trench, several inches from the seed row and a little deeper than the seed.

Practice frequent shallow cultivation until after blossoming when cultivation may be lessened.

BRIEF NEWS OVER STATE

(International News Service)

JOHNSTOWN—A bicycle built for two is O. K. for a song but bad for safety, says Johnstown's police chief, A. J. McDevitt, who recently ruled out double riding in his city. He also ordered that all bicycles be licensed to curb accidents and thefts.

LEWISTOWN—A fallen street light was responsible for the recovery of $1600 in war bonds and cash belonging to Mrs. Edna Geibel of Lewistown. A milkman, who stopped during his routine delivery to remove the globe from the street, discovered the money in a tin box lying beside it.

HARLEYSVILLE—Hester Leidy, 26, of Harleysville, knows how it feels to be kicked in the face by a mule. He was hospitalized with possible fractures of the skull and facial bones, and skin lacerations.

ALLENTOWN—A special uniform, button or arm band insignia for American farm boys was suggested by Secretary of Agriculture Miles Horst at a recent meeting of the Allentown Industrial Club. He maintained such recognition would stimulate the public to appreciate "the real farm boy who is sacrificing the glamour and glory of the war and is criticized for not being in uniform."

MUNDY'S CORNER—Mute evidence of a battle to the death in the animal world was discovered near Mundy's Corner by C. T. Grove of Vinco, when he came across a dead pigeon hawk. The hawk had been strangled by a green grass snake which died itself in the bird's death grip.

SOMERSET—The maple syrup season which just closed in Somerset county was reported the most successful in the region's history. C. C. McDowell, county farm agent, said this year's crop will approximate $300,000.

UNIONTOWN—It was a sad homecoming for Pte Willard J. Miller, 22, of Uniontown. After four years in the Hawaiian area he learned for the first time that his brother Daniel had been killed in action in Australia last February.

CONNELLSVILLE—The boys in the Marshall Islands are "in the best of health and in good spirits, only lonely for home," wrote Andrew Huestick of Davidson to a Connelleville paper. He said he had met many Pennsylvanians in the area, including two Connelleville men.

HARRISBURG—Jeremiah Smith of Harrisburg discovered it doesn't pay to sleep on the job even after 16 years of hard work. He was attacked and robbed by a thief while dozing at his desk at a garage where he was employed.

Ration Points Cut But Where's Lamb?

PITTSBURGH, April 28.—(INS)—Pittsburgh district housewives hailing the 50 per cent cut in the ration point value of lamb effective Sunday through June 3, received a jolt when they found lamb practically non-existent in butchers' cases.

In the opinion of one dealer, the OPA order reducing lamb points is "ridiculous" because, he said, "No body can get lamb to sell in any quantity."

Another said the shortage in beef, as well as lamb, is the worst in his 50 years of experience.

Law Enforcement Is Best Safety Education

PITTSBURGH, April 28.—(INS)—Rigid enforcement of traffic laws is the best safety education. Sup. of Schools Henry H. Hill told members of the Western Pennsylvania Safety Council.

Pointing out that although wartime accidents among adult civilians had shown a decline, a accidental deaths among children under 14 have increased nine per cent, Dr. Hill urged his safety-minded listeners to practice safety even to the point of respecting tickets as serious matters.

There may be as many as 100 million fibres in a single pound of cotton.

Ward Seizure
Row Flares Anew
In Congress TodayHouse Investigation Of Incident
May Be Result Of Many
DemandsBy WILLIAM E. ZIMMERMAN
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, April 28.—The row over government seizure of the Chicago plant of Montgomery Ward &amp; Co. flared anew in congress today. The major development was sign of willingness on the part of Rep. Sabath (D) Ill., chairman of the house rules committee, to clear the way for a house investigation of the incident.

A meeting of the committee resulted in an outburst between Republican and Democratic members of the committee. It was touched off when Rep. Allen (R) Ill., demanded of Sabath when he would give a hearing on the resolution of Rep. Dewey (R) Ill., calling for a special committee to investigate the government's seizure.

"A mail order house is not greater than the government," Sabath retorted.

Protests Arrive

Allen said he had been swamped with telephone calls protesting the government action and contended: "If the government can take over a store they can take over your home."

The white-haired committee chairman, dean of the house in point of service and a representative from Chicago, hesitated to make a commitment when he would grant a hearing on the Dewey resolution which was supported by the Republican delegation from Illinois. Rep. Michener (R) Mich., suggested the hearing be held tomorrow.

Sabath replied that he would discuss with the committee later today whether they would meet tomorrow or possibly next week and said he assumed the Republicans would wish to have Attorney General Francis Biddle to testify.

This indicated some change in Sabath's attitude of yesterday when he indicated strongly to reporters that the Dewey resolution would be pigeon-holed on the assumption that the Montgomery Ward dispute would be settled long before the measure could be brought up before his committee.

FINES TOTAL $7,500

PITTSBURGH, April 28.—(INS)—Fines totaling $7,500 were imposed on two district wholesale meat dealers today upon their pleas of no defense to selling beef and veal above OPA prices.

John Delfrate, operating the Delfrate Packing company at Sloan, Washington county, was fined $5,000 and F. A. Klein, owner of the F. A. Klein Provisions company of Adlerly, was fined $2,500.

More than 1,000,000,000 pieces of mail have been dispatched to American soldiers overseas since the first American contingents went abroad shortly after Pearl Harbor.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—(INS)—A "wide open" House investigation of the government's seizure of the Montgomery Ward plant in Chicago was ordered today by the House rules committee after a stormy session. While senators were angrily denouncing the seizure in open debate, the House rules committee approved the resolution, sponsored by Rep. Dewey (R) Ill., to investigate the government's act.

WITH VICTORY
GARDENERSCHAS. G. LINDNER,
City Chairman,
State Council of DefenseGARDEN PREPARATIONS

It is estimated that more than two-thirds of all families planted gardens in 1943, and that if every family which could grow a garden did so in the season just beginning, the proportion would be four-fifths of the approximately two million families in the commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Seeds, plants and fertilizers will be adequate this year except onion and possibly cabbage and other botanically related vegetables.

As a first step, if you have not already planned your garden, secure leaflet No. 73 of the Pennsylvania State College Agricultural Extension Service, entitled "Plan the Home Garden." It presents a plan of a garden in which with average yields the complete annual supply of vegetables can be grown for a family of five persons.

By act of the Pennsylvania state legislature, authority is conferred on the State Council of Defense to call on the extension service of Pennsylvania State college to furnish accurate technical information to all who request it. Office of the county agent is on the second floor of the Post Office building.

The work of the extension service is wholly educational, while that of the victory garden committee is promotional, aiming to give help and information to all and encourage the intelligent planting of victory gardens as our "bit" in the national effort.

Don't start what you can't finish and don't waste good seed on bad soil. Gardens need good well drained soil, not the usual kind of city lots where soil is mostly cinders and rubbish. Places where weeds flourish are promising garden spots.

We have at our disposal some select garden sites—soil that has been cultivated and manured for several seasons. These may be procured by the right bona fide gardener by addressing Victory Gardener, 214 Euclid avenue. If you have a vacant plot fit for gardening, you may help this worthy project by listing it with the committee at the above address.

Perhaps in the end, what we defend most in defense gardens is our dream of a better world.

MOSCOW, April 28.—(INS)—The hard-hitting fleet air arm of the Russian navy today was credited by frontline observers with playing a major role in destroying enemy installations and communications in the current siege of Sevastopol. Stormovik attack planes have been especially active, these sources reported, bombing enemy arteries and wreaking havoc all along the front. One unit, commanded by a Major Trushin, alone destroyed 14 tanks, 53 cars, three anti-aircraft batteries and one trench mortar emplacement.

German vessels in and near Sevastopol are brought under constant assault, with transports singled out for special attention. The entire port blazed through the night, frontline observers added.

During four attacks on enemy convoys, torpedo planes and dive bombers sank three transports and two other vessels.

On the northern battlefield twelve big warplanes of the Baltic air fleet recently attacked an enemy convoy which protected by a formidable squadron of Focke-Wulfs and sank two large vessels, a cutter and a landing barge.

Administration
Change Is Urged
To Speed Victory

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., April 28.—(INS)—G. Mason Owlett, Republican National Committeeman for Pennsylvania, predicted today that change in the national administration will hasten the day of victory.

Owlett told the 22nd annual convention of the Pennsylvania self-insurers' association in Atlantic City the "the sooner the bureaucrats are driven out, the sooner the war will be brought to a successful conclusion." He charged that New Deal policies "have given us a complete political anarchy in Washington."

The G. O. P. leader, who is president of the Pennsylvania Manufacturers' Association, charged that the approaching election was making it increasingly evident that the "activities of our government are evenly divided between prosecuting the war and spending untold millions in public money to perpetuate the New Deal in power."

Guilty Verdict Against Christy On Numbers Charge

PITTSBURGH, April 28.—(INS)—Frank Christy today was found guilty of operating what district attorneys called the biggest numbers racket in Allegheny county.

The jury of nine women and three men arrived at their verdict in only 40 minutes, 10 minutes less than it had taken Judge Alexander Cooper to charge them.

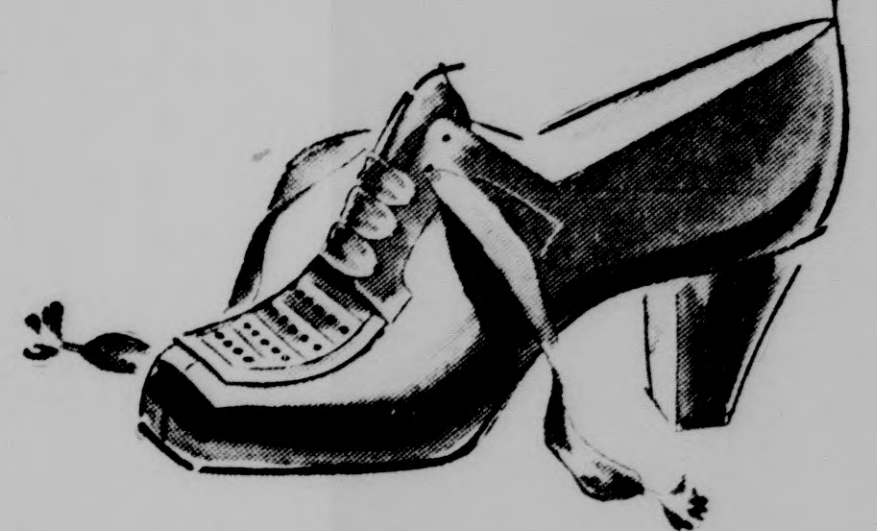

The verdict may mean that the county will get the $41,000 seized in Christy's home and which allegedly represented the winnings of his numbers lotteries. Christy, however, has asked the state superior court to return the money to him, claiming it belongs to his mother.

He was released under $2,500 bond pending an appeal for a new trial. Defense attorneys had maintained that the state failed to show Christy was connected with the lottery, which was allegedly taking in $21,000 daily.

Governor Asks For Observance Of Special Days

Urges State To Cooperate In Public Observance Of Americanism Days

HARRISBURG, April 28—(INS)—Gov. Edward Martin has called upon Pennsylvanians to hold public observances of "Americanism days" and "I am an American day," which will be celebrated in the state on May 1 and 21, respectively. The chief executive stated that proper observance of the days "will contribute much to clarify American ideals, to crystallize our convictions and to unify our purpose and effort."

May 1 of each year was designated by the 1939 general assembly as "Americanism Day" in Pennsylvania and, by congressional enactment, the third Sunday of May is proclaimed each year by the president of the United States as "I Am An American Day."

Veterans' organizations, patriotic societies, and other civic, social and fraternal organizations were urged by the governor to "give full recognition to the importance of these observances by suitable ceremonies."

Schools and educational institutions in the state were asked by Governor Martin to take every advantage of the occasions to inculcate our children and youth with a deep sense of the value and significance of their American heritage.

Display of the American and state flags by state and municipal offices, schools, churches and homes was requested by the chief executive. Superintendent of Public Instruction Francis B. Haas joined Governor Martin in urging that educational institutions of the state sponsor appropriate exercises on the occasions.

"In the third year of global conflict," he stated, "the preservation of representative government demands that educational leadership stress, in every possible way, the privileges and duties of American citizenship."

Admiral Halsey Says Jap Fleet Is Now Doomed

"We'll Get Jap Fleet If We Have To Blast It Out Of Home Harbor"

WOULD HATE TO BE IN TOJO'S SHOES

By JACK MAHON (U.S. Staff Correspondent)

ADMIRAL HALSEY'S HQTRS., South Pacific, April 28.—Admiral William F. Halsey Jr., weighing each word carefully, promised icily today that the United States Navy would get the Jap fleet if it had to blast it out of its home harbor.

Discussing the gigantic progress of the war in the Pacific in the past year, he added, "Thank God, I'm not in Tojo's shoes."

Pressed for his opinion on just when and where our fleet could expect to establish contact with the mysteriously absent Imperial navy, Halsey said:

"That came under the head of crystal gazing but I'll take a stab at it. The enemy is probably waiting until he thinks he can get us into a position where he can get at our fleet with the least possibility of hurting himself. Maybe he's holding back his forces for the final attack on his home defenses."

Will Get Them

"It matters little. We will get him before its over if we have to blast him out of his harbors with air power, submarines and surface forces. The day will come when all Jap ships will be good ships—at the bottom of the ocean."

Asked what were the chief problems he had to contend with and the lessons he learned from the South Pacific campaign which is now drawing to a successful close, Halsey said lack of equipment was the main stumbling block.

Outlining the campaign in which he has played a major role, Halsey declared:

"The all important occupation of Guadalcanal was done on a shoe-string. If it had not been done, the Philippines, New Hebrides, and New Caledonia would have been left open to the Japs and New Zealand and Australia vulnerable to invasion."

Took Big Chance

"Due to lack of time and preparation, the situation was fraught with danger but because of the magnificent way the men of the Allied countries fought, it was saved and the Japs were thrown out."

"When we started our first real offensive of the Guadalcanal campaign in December, 1943, the doom of Tokyo began to take shape. From that moment we have gone forward on all fronts."

With his customary decision and vehemence when speaking of the Japanese, Halsey said the first and greatest lesson we learned from fighting in this area was "that the Jap instead of being a superman, is a monkey man."

"We have it all over him for initiative. Our forces and material are piling up and thank God, I'm not in Tojo's shoes."

This writer asked if he thought the Japs were afraid to risk a major naval defeat this year and the admiral replied, "That is a difficult question to answer. They have suffered much more than we have and every loss they have had has been bad. I wouldn't be surprised if that thought is in the back of their heads."

"If we could knock out their fleet, it would enable us to move anywhere we wanted to and then we could hit them with air and naval bombardment."

Halsey was asked if he would care to predict the possible duration of the Pacific war.

"No comment," replied Halsey with a broad grin. It was obvious he felt he had said enough.

Plan Bean Dinner

Saturday, April 29, at noon the Cadets and the boys' teams of the past membership drive will enjoy a bean dinner at the Y. M. C. A.

The dinner will honor this year's membership drive workers who did a splendid job. The workers managed to turn in one of the best reports for a drive in many years.

Harold Pears acted as coach for the boys' teams and did a good job in keeping the boys pepped up during the campaign.

All workers will receive an award for their efforts. Leading the boys this year was Jim Pears; Dick Burr, runner-up, was very close at the finish, but both these boys deserve a lot of credit for splendid work.

Saturday Night Swims

On Saturday nights at 7:30 the dads and boys in the younger group classes of the boy's department gather at the "Y" for an hour's swim.

This is a new activity for the local "Y" and promises to be well attended. The group of fathers that attend enjoy this happy hour with their boys in the pool.

All fathers of boys who are members of the Midwest, Cadet or Junior B classes can come in to swim with their sons.

Pool is open this Saturday night at 7:30 under the supervision of Mr. Winter, "Y" physical director.

OCD NOTES

F. T. Sargent who may appropriately be termed the day desk man and the night travel man for the city OCD can also be called "Frank the Warner." Daily he delivers an oration concerning persons who leave homes at night, yet permit electric lights to burn. He asserts that no one knows when a black-out will be staged. During the practices held here there have been more than a few black-outs. When the OCD got under way some aldermanic fines were imposed. There were only a few of them.

The cast of Syria Temple's musical will entertain the patients of Deshon hospital, Butler, Pa., Sunday, April 30. The cast of 60 is made up entirely of members of Syria Temple assisted by the Syria Ladies club. The general director of the show is George H. Evrion, who has written many of the original lyrics. The chorus and orchestra are under the direction of Homer Ochenhirt, while James E. Allan handles the interludes' part.

Potential Artemus C. Leslie announced that cigarettes and cigars will be distributed to all the patients at the hospital. The cost of the cigarettes has been donated by the "Legion of Honor," a unit within Syria Temple consisting of members who have seen military service and who have been honorably discharged from a recognized military campaign.

The entire program is scheduled to be broadcast from radio station WISR, Butler, Pa.

A washing powder made of chestnuts is now sold in Amsterdam, Holland.

Honor Veteran Of Aleutians

Pfc. Costi Borza, Former Local Boy, Guest At Party At Roumanian Club

Pfc. Costi Borza, former New Castle boy, and a veteran of the Aleutians campaign, where he took part in the battles of Kiska and Attu, was honored at a party given in the Roumanian club April 22.

Costi, who has been in service for three years, recounted his experiences in the Aleutians campaign and stated that he wished there were more people doing things for the veterans' return.

President J. D. Russi presided, and introduced the speaker. The party was largely attended and proved very successful.

Pfc. Borza will leave on May 2 for Colorado, where he will receive a new assignment to duty.

White Slave Act Violations Charged

PHILADELPHIA, April 28.—(INS)—Frank J. Suppan, who FBI agents described as a "real jack of all trades," was indicted by the federal grand jury in Philadelphia today on charges of violating the white slave act.

Suppan, according to the FBI men, runs a hotel in Honesuck, Pa., a taproom in Allentown, and is a good "camera man" that he took his own "movies" of the prostitutes he brought back from New York and other cities while they were with their "patrons" in the hotel.

The government has the pictures and will use them as evidence when Suppan is brought to trial, probably in June.

The indictment contains 10 counts on which Suppan could be given a maximum sentence of 50 years in prison if found guilty.

Report Hess Is Convinced Hitler Has Lost War

LONDON, April 28.—(INS)—Rudolph Hess, once Hitler's leading stooge, and most of the captured German generals confined in Britain with him were reported today openly admitting that Germany has lost the war.

Some of the other generals, though, according to the London Daily Sketch, boast that if Germany does lose this war she will win the next.

Hess, who parachuted into Scotland in 1941 after a bizarre flight from Germany hoping to negotiate a peace with Britain at the expense of Russia, now astens intently to radio reports of German military defeats. No longer does he shout "Lies, all lies" as he formerly did; instead, he is said to admit truth of the reports resignedly with his fellow prisoners.

Legion Rolls Are Being Increased

WASHINGTON, April 28.—(INS)—American Legion on the eve of its spring committee sessions in Washington, announced today an all-time high membership peak—1,243,172 as of April 20, a jump of more than 232,000 since a year ago.

National Commander Warren H. Atherton declared the majority of this increased membership represents World War II veterans.

The number of American Legion posts shot over the 12,000 mark for the first time in history. Final preparations are under way for the spring sessions of the national executive committee, April 30, May 1 and 2, and of some 30 national commissions, boards, committees and subcommittees which started April 27.

BANK EMPLOYEE FACING CHARGES

SCRANTON, Pa., April 28.—(INS)—Marie Murphy, an employee of the First National bank of Plymouth, was held under $2,000 bail on charges of embezzling $7,200 in bank funds.

Miss Murphy received a hearing Thursday before U. S. Commissioner Harry Kolb at Scranton. She was also accused of making false entries.

EXTRA GASOLINE FOR REPORTING ON ELECTION

MERCER, April 28.—Judges of election in Mercer county who drove to Mercer with their precinct returns after the polls closed were given ration stamps for three gallons of gasoline in addition to six cents a mile traveling expenses. It was the first time for election judges to get fuel for the trip.

Modern Youth Comes Under Babson Scrutiny

By ROGER W. BABSON
Copyright—1944—Publishers Financial Bureau, Inc.

BABSON PARK, Mass., April 28.—We hear much regarding the delinquency of youth. Many parents are having difficulties in keeping their teen-age children at home and off the streets. This especially applies to communities near army camps, naval bases, air fields and munitions plants. I'm told, however, that in most cases these children are to blame because they themselves do not stay home. They set their teen-age children a very poor example. Furthermore, for every young person found on the streets at night probably several others are found loafing in night clubs. Therefore, I feel that the first step is for a community to clear up its "delinquent parent" situation.

Hats Off to American Youth

During the past few years which I spent in Florida, I've seen many soldiers. Babson Park is near the great Avon Park army air field which contains the largest practice bombing field in the world. This has given me an opportunity to meet, not only men in training, but men who have returned from all parts of the world. They certainly are a marvelous group. It is almost beyond human understanding what these boys, 20-25 years of age, are accomplishing. They truly possess a character, intelligence and training far in excess of what boys of that age had when I was in college 40 years ago.

However, I wish to write on the business judgment—rather than on the fighting ability—of these young men. The tendency of our oldsters is to judge industry and investments through our own eyes and based upon our own experience. If young people don't agree with us, we naturally assume that we are right and the young people are wrong. I have found this way for many years; but I am gradually changing my ideas. Without doubt we are entering a new era. Such new eras come only once in about 200 years. It is difficult for our older people to adjust ourselves to these new conditions and to judge things correctly by the new standards.

Consult More With Young People

I often attend conferences where these questions are discussed: "The future of railroads vs. aviation?" "Will utilities become municipally owned?" "Will the government go into business in order to provide employment?" At these meetings we older people think we are to determine what is to happen to our investments. We make a great mistake in figuring on any such false assumption. The answers will be determined by the young people in our families and employment. Even the future of the New Deal lies with these boys and girls.

Do not be shocked by this but I believe that the opinion of most persons in the twenties as to the future of any industry or political policy is more valuable than the opinion of most persons over 50 years of age. The reason is that the future of the industry or policy depends upon what these young persons are going to buy, or do, or vote—not according to what we older ones buy, do or vote. I had rather have the opinion of an intelligent 25-year-old returning service man on the future of most American industries than that of a conservative investment counselor who is judging the future by the past.

What Youth Thinks About U. S. Bonds

Recently I was with a group of officers including graduates from Harvard business school, Wharton School of Finance, Northwestern University and Babson Institute. We discussed what would happen after the war, to our government bonds in case the debt reaches $300,000,000,000. These are the boys who will decide the question of whether or not the debt is to be refunded and, if so, how? It will not be decided by the present Treasury officials, nor by present officers of banks or insurance companies. I will repeat the suggestions of three of these boys:

Suggestion No. 1: "I believe that the government debt of all nations should be reorganized as would be the debt of a railroad which has become too unwieldy. The holder of a $1000 government bond could be given $250 in a new 2½ per cent 30-year coupon bond; $500 in a registered income bond, the interest on which could be payable at various rates according to the receipts from a new sales tax levied for this purpose; and $250 in non-interest-bearing script which could be used for the payment of certain taxes. This would immediately cut the fixed interest payment down 75 per cent and yet every bondholder should eventually get his principal back with interest depending upon the prosperity of the country."

Suggestion No. 2: "Let other countries readjust their debts in the above manner; but I shall never vote to have the United States do anything which could be called repudiation in the slightest degree. I believe a debt of $300,000,000,000 can be supported and should be supported so that every one will get his full interest and some day his principal. All we need do is to revalue the dollar by printing more currency and thus cause an increase in national incomes proportionate to the increase in our national debt. Instead of cutting down the war debt, let us inflate prices, wages, land values, etc. Then it will be as easy to pay interest on $300,000,000,000 as it was to pay interest on 25 per cent of this amount a few years ago."

Suggestion No. 3: "I have a better idea than either of you other men," said the third soldier. "I oppose either a reorganization of the debt or inflation. Both ideas are wrong. I recommend refunding the entire debt of $300,000,000,000 for 100 years—with a ½ of 1 per cent coupon. Then I should allow these bonds to be used at par for the payment of taxes and I should support them with a Federal sales tax, the income from which could be used to call bonds by lot at a premium of 10 per cent. A small sales tax will easily give the government $3,300,000,000 a year which would repay the entire debt within 100 years. It is true that these bonds might at times sell less than par; but—the fact that $3,300,000,000 would be called each year by lot at 110—should hold prices pretty close to par. This means that taxes could be greatly reduced, inflation avoided and everyone could receive par for his bonds plus as much interest as the big banks of New York are now paying depositors."

What About Russia?

Do not quote me as making any of these recommendations. I merely give these illustrations to show how modern youth is thinking and to urge readers to give more attention to the "crazy" ideas of our young people. They are the ones that will determine what will happen to the national debt and to every stock and bond. I do not say that youths have better judgment than their parents; nor that they are less likely to change their minds. All I say is that our returning service men should be better able to forecast the future.

Many people worry as to what extent the Russian shadow is to fall upon this country, especially during the next depression. They see Russia becoming such a world power that they fear she will Russianize Europe and England and that the effects will ultimately be felt in America. This certainly seems reasonable; but a 22-year-old flier returned from delivering airplanes to Russia, said to me: "Don't worry about Russia. She will have her own postwar troubles. Sixteen Russian generals are already planning to get Stalin's berth."

Catholic Women Gather For Banquet

Fr. Oliver Keefe, Pittsburgh, addresses Lawrence County Union of Sodalties

"The influence and power of all young Catholic women should not be underestimated, but should prove to be of tremendous importance to them, if their ideals in life today are of high value and their virtues many." So said the Rev. Fr. Oliver Keefe of the Cathedral chapter, Pittsburgh, when he addressed, as principal speaker, the large group of Catholic young women at the annual banquet of the Lawrence County Union of Sodalties.

In his talk, Father Keefe emphasized the achieving of such "high standards of living, through devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary. All actions of Catholic young women should serve as an inspiration to others."

The banquet was held Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock in the Ecclesian club rooms, and the tables were attractively arranged, with the young girls of St. Joseph's parish serving the delicious meal. Community singing by the group was enjoyed, and following the speakers program was heard.

Miss Margaret Valley, president of the Lawrence County Union of Sodalties, presided, and after brief remarks called upon the director of the Lawrence County Union of Sodalties, Rev. Fr. Leo S. Watterson of St. Mary's. Father Watterson thanked all of the committees and the girls that served, and congratulated the group on the fine attendance. He later introduced the principal speaker of the evening, Rev. Fr. Oliver Keefe.

The invocation of the evening was given by Father Watterson, and benediction by Rev. Fr. Francis C. Streiff.

Priests attending the banquet as honored guests included: Rev. Fr. Nick Biondi, Rev. Fr. Joseph A. Mastrangelo, Rev. Fr. Elias G. Nader, Rev. Fr. Charles D. Galati, Rev. Fr. Edward Pikulik, Rev. Fr. Albert M. Inteso, Rev. Fr. Leo S. Watterson, Rev. Fr. Oliver Keefe, Rev. Fr. Francis Kuczyński, Rev. Fr. William M. Pisarcik, Rev. Fr. Francis C. Streiff, Rev. Fr. John M. Unger, Rev. Fr. Francis Lesniak, Rev. Fr. Francis M. McCarter, Rev. Fr. Fred Atkinson, and Rev. Fr. Francis King.

On May 7 the Lawrence County Union of Sodalties will meet at the Madonna church at 2 o'clock for their meeting.

Catherine of Russia paid a physician $50,000 for inoculating her and her son against smallpox, and in addition, he was given $10,000 for traveling expenses. He was also granted an annual pension of $2500 for life.

About seven million men under 38 in the United States are fathers of young children.

C. D. Of A. Plans For Charity Event

C. D. Of A. Court Communion Sunday, May 7, At St. Margaret's For World Peace

At the Thursday evening meeting of the Catholic Daughters of America, Court Teresa Irene No. 231, plans were made for the group to receive holy communion in a body on Sunday, May 7, in St. Margaret's church at the 8:30 o'clock mass. Intention for the group will be an early peace.

Grand Regent Mrs. Mary Maher was in charge and presided. An in-itation from the Junior C. D. of A. to attend the initiation of the group on May 14 was extended by the junior chairman, Mrs. Harry Stenger. On May 20 a charity event will be held by the C. D. of A. with Mrs. Mary Maher as chairman, assisted by a group of committees. Thursday, May 25, is the next meeting.

SAVED BY SUNBEAM
ERIE, Pa.—(INS)—"A bright little sunbeam" was credited by Lieut. George L. Sweeney, of Erie, with saving his life when his plane ran low on fuel and a pack of Messerschmitts got on his tail. He sent the plane into a dive straight down a sunbeam, he said, and lost the Jerrys.

Tells Of Yanks' Northern New Guinea Advance

EDITOR'S NOTE: Peter Hemery, International News Service War Correspondent, presents an eye-witness account of preparations for the over-water assault which American forces staged across Lake Sentani, in northern New Guinea, to seize two of the vital Hollandia airdromes. Though written Sunday, release of the story was held up until today for security reasons.

By PETER HEMERY
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

WITH THE AMERICANS ON THE HOLLANDIA BEACHHEAD, April 23.—(Delayed)—Green-clad American battalions troops a half-hour ago captured Pancake Hill, a flat-topped, steep-sided rise of ground commanding the Japanese trail from Pim Village to Hollandia's three airdromes—and already army buffaloes, alligators and ducks are rumbling over the trail toward Lake Sentani. There the plan is to take to the water again and circumnavigate any possible enemy defenses in the swamps on the northern shore of the lake and land at the closest point to the dromes as possible.

The men then will either disembark and form a beachhead on the lake shore or, if unopposed, the lumbering amphibious vehicles will scramble ashore and rumble down the road to the airstrips.

(Editor's Note: This morning's communique from Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters announced that this land-water tactic "worked out admirably.")

No Opposition of Importance
Actually, the Yanks encountered no opposition from Pancake Hill itself other than two Jap snipers—both of whom were killed during the first few minutes of climbing the least-precipitous slope.

Two other Japs were captured, dazed, filthy and louse-ridden. It was easy to see why they were dazed—the whole top of Pancake Hill had been shorn clear of a bald head by the American bombs and artillery during the "softening up" barrage.

From Hamadi Island in Jettefa Bay facing the hill, several bursts of machine gun fire and occasional whining rifle bullets greeted the Yanks. But a half hour later these Hamadi Island snipers were mopped up, and the Americans were both-ered no further.

Col. Harold Heine, of Columbus, O., leader of one of the attacking parties which followed the Japs into the forest-choked hills, said he got a "double surprise."

"First," he declared, "I never imagined and would not have believed there ever could be country as difficult as this; secondly, I anticipated tougher resistance."

"We just flushed one covey of Japs after another and wiped them out. With my boys, though, the results would have been exactly the same even if the Japs had fought."

Youngsters To See Tin Can Matinee

Eleven hundred boys and girls of the schools of New Castle and the townships will enjoy "Henry Aldrich" Saturday morning because they collected 350 or more tin cans in the past five weeks. S. Glenn McCracken, city collection chairman, stated today that tickets had been sent out to 1,100 youngsters as their reward for their work.

The special "tin can matinee" takes place in the Penn theater Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. The doors open at 9:30. Parents who expect to get their youngsters at the close of the show are asked to get to the theater by 12 noon.

In addition to the picture there will be a few short addresses. Judge W. Walter Brahm will speak, as will OGD Executive Director Louis B. Round, and Salvage Chairman Ross D. Rosenberger.

War Measures Must Be Undone

NEW YORK, April 28.—(INS)—Many of the emergency measures forced upon the American people "by the hour of need" in the current war will have to be undone when peace comes, Eric A. Johnston, president of the United States Chamber of Commerce warned today.

The people themselves must act "resolutely and positively" after the war to reduce "big government" to its proper proportions, he told the American Newspaper Publishers' Association's bureau of advertising.

Elephants pant by waving their ears. Blood circulating through the huge ears is cooled by the moving air.

'Little Black Book' Center Of Interest In Capital Trial

Supposed To Contain Names Of Persons Who May Be Involved In Case

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, April 28.—The government prepared today to call to the witness stand in its Mann Act conspiracy case against seven women, the "star attraction" of the "million-dollar a year call house."

Blonde Sunny Pitts—recently a Hollywood extra—who testified in an earlier prosecution that she "took" as much as $500 a week from well-to-do patrons to whom the Hopkins Institute allegedly catered, was in the capital to testify against the seven alleged "party girls."

Meanwhile, Justin Macklin of Cleveland, Ohio, named by the principal prosecution witness, Mildred Powell Carter, octoroon manager of the "institute" as a patron, was said by defense lawyers to be ready to take the witness stand voluntarily and refute her story.

Mrs. Carter had declared that she took girls to his hotel room—to properly introduce them—and accused him of giving them three checks, for $75, $80 and $100—that "bounced."

While Mrs. Carter—an admitted prostitute herself who confessed she pilfered money from receipts of the "institute," which she managed but did not own—continued to recount intimate details of how the project of furnishing "call girls" operated, there was much interest in whether contents of "the little black book" would be revealed.

Supposed To Have Names
The book—which turned out to be several other colors—supposedly contains the names of prosperous business and professional men alleged by Mrs. Carter to have been well-paying patrons of the charm center she managed.

The book was open and in the hands of Mrs. Carter on the witness stand yesterday—but names were not read aloud, and the book was not introduced in evidence. She reportedly pointed to one name and identified it as that of a business man; to another, as that of a newspaper publisher, and a third as that of a baseball club official—all of whom she said "ordered" girls for "entertainment."

The name of Macklin did not appear, it was said. Under defense cross-examination Mrs. Carter said he used the name of "Joe Cummings" and "asked us not to put his name in the book."

But she said names of customers more prominent than Macklin went into the book.

Code letters reportedly designated the patron's "financial rating" from the institute's viewpoint. Some were mere ten-dollar patrons, while others were "hundred-dollar men." Testimony was given that the institute and the "entertainer" split the take.

CONTRACT AWARDED

HARRISBURG, April 28.—(INS)—A $25,956 contract for resurfacing 1.83 miles of bituminous topped highway in Sharon, Pa., has been awarded to the Kelley & Meyer Co., of Youngstown, O., by the Pennsylvania Department of Highways.

St. Mary's Youth Club Starts Series

Dance Scheduled Friday Evenings In Catholic Center, North Beaver Street

St. Mary's Youth club will hold "open house" this evening at the Catholic Center, North Beaver street, at which time they will inaugurate a series of Friday night dances for the enjoyment of the younger set.

The dance will probably get underway at 8 o'clock, continuing until 11:30 o'clock, dancing to jute box tunes. Later dainty refreshments will be served canteen style.

An invitation has been extended to the young high school people of all the Catholic parishes.

Mrs. Ray Wallace, chairman of the women of St. Mary's parish will sponsor the series, and she will be assisted by the ladies.

WILL BE SOME DELAY
STATE COLLEGE, April 28.—(INS)—Don't expect to move into one of those widely-advertised "homes of tomorrow" with their glass walls and solar heating right after the war.

J. Burn Helme, professor of fine arts at Pennsylvania State College, expressed the opinion today that the "house of tomorrow" will not be adopted on a large scale until some years after peace returns.

"The change . . . to a more utilitarian type of building will be a gradual evolution and will not occur in the immediate postwar period," said the Penn State professor.

Recruit Youths For Forest Fire Fighters In State

Wartime Shortage Of More Than
9000 Volunteer Fire Fighters
Is Reported

By JOHN PAGET
(U. S. S. Staff Correspondent)

HARRISBURG, April 28.—Forest wardens throughout Pennsylvania were recruiting high school youths today to relieve a wartime shortage of more than 9000 volunteer fire fighters.

George H. Wirt, chief fire warden for the department of forests and waters, said recruits must be at least 16 years of age. Youths who have not reached their 17th birthday must have labor certificates issued by the department of public instruction.

The recruits will augment the present force of approximately 30,000 fire fighters, including 30 women tower watchers, that protect more than 13,000,000 acres of Pennsylvania forests, Wirt explained.

To Protect Forests

"In order to assure adequate protection for our forests," he said, "we have done this to increase our reserves and have contacted high school officials to help make the necessary arrangements."

Since January 1 there have been approximately 350 fires in the state compared with more than 800 in a similar period two years ago, he disclosed. Abundant rainfalls were credited with reducing fire hazards.

"Our manpower difficulties won't be too apparent if we don't have too many fires in the state," Wirt declared. "However, our difficulties will multiply if a dry spell hits the forests and numerous fires break out."

It was common, he added, for 40 or 50 fires to be recorded in any one of the 24 districts in a day.

The fire season was dampened last week by rain in most sections of the state but not until more than 225 fires had been reported between April 19 and 21, Wirt revealed.

Wardens are not required to report forest fires confined to less than 500 acres unless they burn for more than 24 hours or show signs of getting out of control. The so-called fire season will end in mid-June.

Reports to headquarters, Wirt added, emphasized that sparks showered by railroad locomotives were responsible for a large percentage of forest fires.

Gloria to Marry

MAJ. GEN. E. A. ALEXANDER, commander of the Caribbean wing of the Air Transport Command, will make Gloria Baker Topping, princess of the glamor girls, his bride in the near future, according to reports received from Palm Beach, Fla. (International)

No Information On Resurfacing Start

City officials report that they are unable to say when Contractor Roy Furman, Waynesburg, will begin resurfacing of Highland avenue and North Mill street.

So far the contractor has not been here since last fall. His equipment is stored in this city.

The gas company is installing new service lines in North Mill street which will preclude any possibility of work such as this holding back the contractor once he gets started.

SAW FEW ACQUAINTANCES

GROVE CITY, April 28.—In two years service in the South Pacific, Lieut. Robert Firm, now home on furlough, saw only three acquaintances, all college classmates.

He met George Bruner of this city when the latter came along in a weapons carrier, and nudged Firm's jeep out of a ditch. Lieut. Osborne Koerner, U. S. Navy, who he met in Australia, was with the Navy task force in the sea battle that relieved the Guadalcanal situation for Firm and his fellow Marines. The third acquaintance was John Wigton of Butler, a Navy flight surgeon.

NEWS AND VIEWS AT CAPITAL

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, April 28.—The small primary election turnout bolstered the contention of party chieftains that voters care little for wartime politics. . . . All indications in Tuesday's balloting pointed to a statewide vote ranging between 25 and 30 per cent of the total registration. . . . In scores of precincts the turnout was approximately one-fifth of the registration. . . . about one-third of the registered vote went to the polls in the 1940 primary while 86 per cent turned out for the general election when President Roosevelt swept Pennsylvania for a third term. . . . Republican state chairman M. Harvey Taylor has predicted 75 per cent of Pennsylvania's electorate will vote November 7.

The write-in votes given to Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, of New York, in the primary was a fair indication of the GOP presidential trend in Pennsylvania. . . . Republican leaders did not enter any party hopeful's name for preferential voting nor did they openly support any candidate. . . . the votes accorded President Roosevelt in Democratic preferential balloting likewise pointed to enthusiastic support for the nation's chief executive among New Dealers if he decides to seek a fourth term.

Mrs. Clara Miller, receptionist for Gov. Edward Martin, winced every time she passed a sign outside the chief executive's public reception room inviting visitors to "walk right in" and featuring a pointing finger much in vogue decades ago. . . . The sign was placed there by former Gov. Gifford Pinchot in 1923 during his first term in office. . . . Mrs. Miller pointed out the sign was grammatically incorrect and after several months the department of property and supplies emerged from the necessary red tape and replaced the sign with a new one which merely informed visitors that they were near the governor's office.

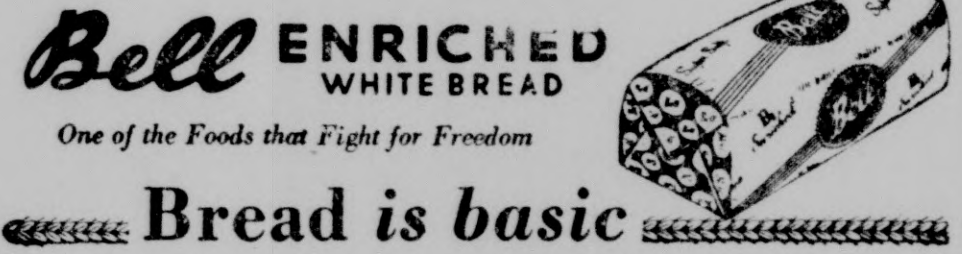

Deputy secretary of property and supplies Walter G. Scott has another problem to add to the burden he carries on his shoulders. . . . It seems that small number of rats have invaded the main capitol building for the first time in years. . . . Scott believes, however, that he can settle the problem if steel traps fail. . . . he said he'll get a cat to blitz the rats.

Governors attending the 36th annual governors' conference at Harrisburg and Hershey starting May 28 will be the recipients of several gifts from the commonwealth. . . . each governor will receive a gavel made from timbers of the man-of-war "Niagara" which participated in the battle of Lake Erie in 1812.

Director Mellon Seeks To End Draft Confusion

Boards In State Given Directions
On Men Over 26 Years
Of Age

HARRISBURG, April 28.—(INS)—State Draft Director Richard K. Mellon sought today to end the confusion surrounding the induction of men over 26 years of age by notifying Pennsylvania's 422 boards of the adoption of a four-point induction program.

Colonel Mellon said the rules had been established "in the interests of uniformity." They directed board members to fill calls for pre-induction physicals as well as induction by calling:

"(1) Volunteers of all ages, who by regulation must be delivered ahead of other registrants.

"(2) Registrants 18 through 25 years of age.

"(3) Registrants 26 or over who have made arrangements for induction and express the desire (voluntarily) to be inducted immediately.

"(4) Registrants 26 or over who are not making a contribution to essential agriculture, war production or war supporting activities."

Colonel Mellon emphasized that local boards were prohibited from postponing pre-induction physicals or induction of registrants over 26 "on the basis of age." Thirty-five jobs have been ruled essential in bulletins mailed to boards.

To postpone processing for induction or to postpone induction of a registrant 26 or over, it is necessary for the local board to make a determination that the registrant is making a contribution to essential agriculture, war production or war supporting activities," Colonel Mellon declared.

"Any local board which, up to this time, has adopted an arbitrary age rule is now ordered and directed to discontinue such action, and is further ordered to review the cases of all such registrants and to take the actions indicated."

Yawning may be due to hunger, fatigue or poor ventilation.

Name New Member Of Mercer Board

MERCER, April 28.—Grover A. Stepleton was appointed to fill the school board vacancy created by the resignation of Kenneth Redmond who is in the navy. Another vacancy will probably be filled in June when Dr. W. W. Proctor, newly elected to the board, expects to report for navy duty. The budget for the new year will be adopted at the May meeting and the figures released at that time.

Three members of the grade school faculty are absent with the following teachers substituting: Mrs. Max Calkins for Mrs. Paul Hinkley, grade five; Mrs. Kenneth Redmond and Miss Alma Crisswell, grades seven and eight; and Mrs. M. M. Eller for Mrs. Gaylord Ringer, grades three and four. The first two teachers are ill and Mrs. Ringer is with her husband who is recovering from an operation in a Philadelphia hospital.

EARLY SOLUTION OF STRIP MINE PROBLEM SEEN

GROVE CITY, April 28.—Speaking before the Rotary Club, R. R. Bowie, operator of extensive deep-mine coal interests here, predicted an early solution of a problem that has aroused much controversy when he said that strip-mine operators had agreed to a proposed legislative measure that would require filling and covering by the strip operators.

Mr. Bowie said that about 75 per cent of the local strip-mining is done on sub-marginal lands worth, for agriculture, about $40 an acre. Strip-mining operations which practically surround Grove City, may bring the farmer $750 or more an acre, but renders the land unfit for cultivation. This condition would be partially corrected by the proposed legislation, he said.

Many protests have been filed on the question, and the legislation is a form of compromise. Strip-miners have been recovering up to 98 per cent of the coal, while deep-mining of the reduced supply can produce little more than 40 percent.

Eight Rationed Vegetables Point Free During May

O.P.A. Moves To Clear Out 1943
Stocks; Point Values Will Be Imposed Later

By PHILLIPS J. PECK
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, April 28.—O.P.A. Administrator Chester Bowles arranged for an "old fashioned, year-end bargain sale" today by making eight rationed vegetables point free during May to clear out 1943 stocks.

The new point-free bargain, beginning Sunday, and continuing through June 3, are tomatoes, corn, asparagus, beets, leafy greens, spinach, canned blackeye peas and Garbanzo beans.

Make Way for New Supplies

Bowles said the action was taken to move existing stocks into the hands of retailers and consumers to make way for new supplies, warning that points for most vegetables will be restored or increased after the carry-over from last season's pack is used up.

"Once the stocks from 1943 are gone, points on many if not all of the vegetables now at zero may have to be restored, and points for other items increased," the O.P.A. chief explained.

"When the supply of point bargains has disappeared, higher point prices will have to be restored to spread new supplies evenly through the next winter."

At the same time, the O.P.A. reduced the point values on a half dozen other categories and increased them on five items.

Those lowered included spaghetti sauce, decreased three points; soups, down one or two points; grape and tomato jams and preserves, down two; apple, grape, mince and plum jellies, down two; bakers' jellies, down two, and fruit butters, down two.

Items increased are cranberries and cranberry sauce, up 7 points; tomato juice in large containers, increased 2 points; canned or bottled dry varieties of beans (excluding soy, blackeye and Garbanzo), increased 5 tomato catsup and chile sauce, up 7; raspberry and strawberry jams and preserves, up 8 points.

Again, Bowles urged victory gardeners to surpass last year's production and called for two million additional gardens this summer.

The point values of canned and bottled fruits, with the exception of cranberries, remain unchanged for May. Point values on fruits were raised in March to slow down a heavy movement of such products into consuming channels.

Readmittance Of Italy To I.L.O. Is Asked By Badoglio

PHILADELPHIA, April 28.—(INS)—Marshal Pietro Badoglio, Italian premier, today sought Italy's readmittance into the International Labor organization, now holding its 26th conference in Philadelphia.

The Italian government dropped its membership in 1939 when it quit the League of Nations in retaliation for sanctions imposed for its attack upon Ethiopia.

Badoglio's move for readmittance came in a formal request dated March 21 "from the seat of the Italian government," and addressed to Carter Goodrich, chairman of the International Labor office. The governing body is studying the application and shortly will make recommendations to the conference. A two-thirds vote is necessary to readmit Italy.

Employ Women As Liquor Clerks

HARRISBURG, April 28.—(INS)—The wartime manpower shortage was apparent today in Pennsylvania liquor stores where women have been employed as clerks for the first time in the 11-year history of the $150,000,000 yearly monopoly.

Chairman Fred T. Gelder said the women were only "emergency employees" and would be dismissed as soon as the shortage of male clerks was abated.

The women, many of the wives of former store clerks serving in the armed forces, were employed about a month ago in Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and several western counties experiencing severe shortages of labor, he explained.

Dog Follows Master To The South Pacific

BOSTON, April 29.—(INS)—The old adage that "a man's best friend is his dog," certainly proved true in the case of Private William Flewelling.

More than a year ago, Flewelling was inducted into the army and assigned to the Ordnance Department, Army Service Forces.

Later he was sent overseas to the South Pacific.

About a year ago after Flewelling had departed on his overseas tour of duty, "Chummy," a black water spaniel, disappeared from his home in Skowhegan, Me.

Recently Mrs. Flewelling received a letter from her husband that

New Castle Fire Losses Far Below Average Of Cities

Survey Of 476 Cities Shows New Castle Record Among The Best
(Special To The News)
NEW YORK, April 28.—New Castle turned in a better record of fire prevention and control for the past year than did the average American city, according to a survey just completed by the National Fire Protection Association, covering 476 cities having populations over 20,000.
The property loss due to fire in New Castle amounted to 36 cents per person as compared with an average of $2.37 for all cities. The total loss in the city was $38,764. Local firemen answered 412 alarms and fought 365 building fires, the report shows.
An increase over 1942 was noted in the past year in the number of building fires in the 476 cities which rose from 492 fires per 1,000 population to 456 per 1,000. The average loss per fire jumped from $445 to $529. The per capita loss rose similarly, going from $1.81 in 1942 to $2.37 in 1943.
A number of reasons are suggested for the growing fire rate, among them the loss of trained personnel of fire departments to the armed service, the deterioration of equipment that is hard to replace, and the increased use of buildings due to the war effort.
Some children's feet may grow from one to three sizes larger in four weeks.

MORE LICENSES BEING REVOKED

Sharp Increase In Suspensions Also Reported In State Recently

HARRISBURG, April 28.—(INS.)—A sharp increase in liquor license revocations and suspensions as a result of Gov. Edward Martin's directive to stamp out "dives" was disclosed today by the State Liquor Control Board.
The board reported that since the governor's order March 8 to "put out of business what has been commonly referred to as 'dives'" 26 licenses were revoked and 158 others were suspended.

"This is a decided increase over the normal amount of revocations and suspensions," a board official declared. "The total number of licenses revoked for the entire year of 1943 was 44, while suspensions for the same period reached 910," he stated.

The board's spokesman attributed the rise to stringent measures being applied by the enforcement bureau rather than increased violations.
"The board is following a stiff policy," he asserted, "and although it is difficult to apply a yard stick to any given situation, we are revoking in many instances licenses that previously would have been suspended."

The majority of violations since the clean-up order were confined to taprooms and bars in metropolitan areas, according to the board's spokesman. Gambling and sales to minors topped the list of offenses.
"The board spokesman added that approximately 4500 more licenses had been issued in the state than were provided for in the quota law of 1939 and that it was the "object and aim of the Liquor Control Board to cut down the excess permits." The law provided for approximately 1300 taprooms for the state or about one for every 1000 persons. The spokesman emphasized that the board was not hunting victims but was seeking uniform enforcement of liquor laws throughout the state.

YOUTH CLAIMS HE IS ESCAPED U. S. SOLDIER

PITTSBURGH, April 28.—(INS.)—A youth who said he escaped from an American army guard house in England and stowed away aboard a freighter to get home was captured in a police dragnet today.

He was captured by an Ingram patrolman after escaping a Pittsburgh policeman who fired a shot at him during a chase through the West End district.
The youth identified himself as Harold Allen, 21, of St. Paul, Minn., and contended he was a welter-weight boxer who fought under the name of "Billy Russo" of Halifax, New Brunswick.

Police and military authorities said they had no way of verifying that either of the two names was correct or that the youth was an escaped soldier.

In World War I Germany enjoyed two years of air superiority before the Allies gained supremacy; history repeated in World War II.

Park Commission Becoming Liberal

PHILADELPHIA, April 28.—(INS.)—Philadelphia's Fairmount Park Commission went "liberal" today.
Two months ago the commission decided to permit male bathers to appear in swimming trunks without benefit of top shirts.
Today the commissioners went two steps further in its modernization program. Bicyclists may now sound horns of any shrillness or variety, and may coast at will—as long as they keep their feet on the brakes.

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., April 28.—(INS.)—Officials of the Glen Alden Coal Co., world's largest anthracite producer, and the United Mine Workers of America have agreed to campaign against summertime absenteeism in the mines in an effort to boost wartime production.

the local office of the Solid Fuels Administration announced today.
A two-week survey of employment schedules will be launched May 1 in the company's collieries to determine the extent of absenteeism.

INFORM POLICE IF DOGS CAUSE GARDEN DAMAGE

HARRISBURG, April 28.—(INS.)—Victory gardeners bothered by stray dogs were advised today by the State Defense Council to inform local police if Buster and Rover destroy vegetable patches.
Mrs. H. B. Elson, chairman of the garden committee, pointed out that ordinances in many communities provided penalties for unleashed dogs while a state law fixes $100 fines for similar offenses.

Fruit stains may be removed by sponging with lemon juice and then washing with hot water.

Postwar Merger Of Army And Navy Agency Opposed

By ARTHUR F. HERMANN (U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, April 28.—Acting Secretary of the Navy, James V. Forrestal today indicated the Navy department's opposition to a proposed postwar merger of the Army and Navy into a single government agency—in direct conflict with War Secretary Henry L. Stimson's public endorsement of the plan.

Forrestal also voiced emphatic disapproval of a companion proposal that the merger be effected during the war—a position in which the War department concurred.
In testimony before the House committee on postwar military policy, the acting secretary of the Navy recommended that studies of the merger proposal should be conducted "with reference not merely to the experience of other countries, but also with special reference to the geographical situation of our nation."

He expressed particular concern over the role Navy air power would take under a unified setup, and pointed to the British navy's difficulties in coordinating its sea and air power in the early days of the war.

"The British navy without its own air arm, without control over its material and with its air service on loan, so to speak, from the R.A.F. and not a part of the navy's fighting forces, had neither means nor personnel with which to develop the use of air power at sea," Forrestal told the committee.
Although Forrestal did not openly oppose the merger plan, he plainly indicated the Navy's opposition in several paragraphs of a prepared statement.

Soldiers In Italy Keep Interest In Many Subjects

By GRAHAM HOVELY
U. S. Staff Correspondent

NAPLES, April 28.—Although the fight for Italy has been long and bitter, the American soldier has maintained a healthy curiosity about an astounding range of subjects, and what is perhaps just as important, he has retained his sense of humor.

He may be bitter at congress for failing to pass the administration's soldier vote bill or he may wonder what all the shouting was about in connection with the measure; he may be over when he reads that the prohibitionists are looking again in the United States or he may regard the subject with indifference; he may be sore at unions or he may think labor has done a good job.

"Sticking Out Neck"

Anyone who tries to generalize about the American soldier in Italy with regard to any of these subjects or similar matters is projecting his neck beyond comfortable proportions.

But you can be sure that the doughboy is keenly interested in a flock of different things and that he still enjoys a good laugh. You can find daily proof in the "mail call" column of Stars and Stripes, the army newspaper which is published six days a week in Naples.

A lot of letters come from troops in the Mediterranean base section or in rear areas where they have time to write, but a surprising number of contributions to the column come from frontline soldiers, too, many of them from the Anzio beachhead, according to Corporal Charles A. Hogan of Trenton, N. J., who edits "mail call."

Some of the queries

In some cases as the result of tent and slit-trench debates and in others merely because of personal curiosity, soldiers recently have written to "Mail Call" to find out the population of Japan, the name of the present pope, the number of times Joe Louis fought Tommy Farr, whether the Mississippi is the longest river in the world, and when the Pittsburgh Pirates last played in the world series.

Questions like these are considered ordinary run-of-the-mine stuff and providing the answers is not too difficult. But when Corp. Leonard Piotrowski wrote in asking whether Abraham Lincoln or George Washington was the taller and Corporal George Newman demanded to know where Julius Caesar was when he said "I came, I saw, I conquered"—well, Hogan's job got tougher in a hurry.

"How smart are animals?" asked Private Bob Burns, who failed to list any relationship to the Scottish bard.

"Where is the first United States flag today?" asked another soldier.

You can see why both Hogan's brain and the Stars and Stripes copies of the Encyclopedia Britannica get vigorous workouts frequently.

A British Tommy signing himself "Disgusted" wrote the following letter to the column which corresponds to "Mail Call" in the British army paper, "Union Jack":

"I like pin-up girls with few clothes on because they look prettier that way, but I would rather it were my own girl friend back home."

"I asked her to be photographed the way pin-up girls are, but when she started to take her frock off the photographer threatened to call the police and ordered her out of the shop."

"Is this the sort of narrow-mindedness we are fighting for?"

HUGE SKATING POND PLANNED

MERCER, April 28.—The board of trustees of Brandy Springs community park will begin development of the site this spring when they break ground for the large skating pond to fill the basin located about 300 feet from the New Wilmington road.

At this week's meeting, the association was given the right to continue the work by Mr. Weigel, Harrisburg of the State Department of Forestry and Waters, who was satisfied that the proper requirements for its construction would be met.

THREE OUT OF FOUR

From the returns of the primary on Tuesday, three out of every four voters neglected their duties. With such a sorry showing in the primaries, few there are who can honestly complain if candidates were named who they felt are not qualified.

Oddly enough the average voter attaches less importance to the primary election than to the general election. The primary is where the voter has a chance to say who shall represent his party in the general election. The primary is where the calibre of the elected officers is determined. The primary is the place to decide the type of man or woman who shall serve later.

This is one year when not many people can complain of the calibre of the candidates. They had a chance to make their wishes known and refused the chance. Certainly they have no just criticism now, if they failed to vote in the primary election.

"I DISCARDED HARSH LAXATIVES"

Ex-Constitution Sufferer
Praises Kellogg's All-Bran

Taking nasty doses—for constipation due to lack of "bulk" in the diet? Then read this letter.

"I wish to submit this voluntary testimonial about KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN as a remedy for constipation. For years I found it necessary to take so-called patent laxatives. They gave me only partial aid. Since starting to use KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN I have discarded artificial aids. My reason for sending this note is to help those who are in the same boat I was."

Wm. F. Fraser, 90-10 Barr Place, Hudson Heights, N. J.

More and more people write in about the joyous relief they get from KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN. It really gets at one common cause of constipation—lack of certain cellulosic elements in the diet. For ALL-BRAN is one of Nature's most effective sources of these elements, which help to fluff up and prepare colonic wastes for easy, natural elimination. Remember, KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN is not a purgative or medicine, it is a grain cereal—a gentle-acting "regulating" food.

If your constipation is due to a bulk-deficiency in the diet, eat KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN regularly, as cereal or in several muffins. Drink plenty of water. See if you don't enjoy lasting relief. Get genuine ALL-BRAN, made only by Kellogg's in Battle Creek.

Soviet-Polish Friendship To Be Considered Indict Thirty In Philadelphia

WASHINGTON, April 28.—(INS)—The State Department disclosed today that two Americans prominent in promoting Soviet-Polish friendship, have gone to Russia at the invitation of the Soviet government and with the approval of the United States government.

The two visitors are Rev. Stanislaus Orlemanski, pastor of our Lady of the Holy Rosary Catholic church in Springfield, Mass., and Prof. Oscar Lange, of the University of Chicago.

Both men are active in the Kosiuzko league which is formed last fall in the United States with the purpose of promoting friendship between the Soviet government and Polish Americans.

Officials acknowledge that the purpose of the visit, as initiated by the Soviet government, was to give encouragement to Polish elements in this country who are favorable to the Soviet government as against the Polish government in exile, with which the Soviet government has broken relations.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28.—(INS)—Thirty men, including 28 war plant and navy yard employees, were indicted Thursday by the federal grand jury in Philadelphia.

Two minor officials of a United Mine Workers of America local were charged with violation of the war labor disputes act for their efforts to incite a strike at the Mary-D Coal Mining Co. during a period of government control. The accused men are Francis C. Kane and Samuel G. Garland.

Also indicted, on charges of stealing equipment, materials and merchandise, including stocks of whisky from foreign vessels in the Philadelphia port, were 23 men employed at the navy yard, the signal corps and on docks and in war plants in the Philadelphia area.

T-Sgt. Abdo Albert Is Awarded D.F.C.

Local Bombardier Gets War Decoration For Many Missions Over Enemy Territory

Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Albert, of 511 Cunningham avenue, that their son, Technical Sergeant Abdo Albert has been awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross by the War Department, in recognition of his having flown in many bombing missions over enemy territory. Sergeant Albert has previously received the Air Medal with Silver Cluster decoration, (silver cluster represents 5 oak leaves).

Sergeant Albert is a radio operator in a bombing squadron, and has been in the service about 2½ years, with 1½ years service in England.

He has two brothers also in the service, Private George Albert, attached to the Medical Corps, stationed for three months in New Guinea. He has been in the service for 9 months, and has been awarded the Bronze Star. Corporal Joseph Albert, of Military Police, is located in Santa Rosa, Calif. He has been in the service almost 1½ years.

Europe Seeks To Guess Date Of Invasion

By J. C. OELSTREICHER
U.S. Foreign Editor

Amateur soothsayers throughout the length and breadth of Europe went to work today to choose the date of Allied invasion.

But for the twelfth consecutive day, all they could smoke out of the closely-guarded council chambers of the Allied high command in London was an endless stream of American and British bombers roaring over the English channel on unbroken assaults against key defense points and war plants of the Nazi Reich.

Daylight assaults reported by German broadcasts upon the Paris area followed a devastating 1,000 plane night assault on Friedrichshafen, the great aircraft manufacturing center on the shores of Lake Constance from which Germany's great zeppelins took off on trans-Atlantic and round-the-world flights in peace-time days.

Observers across the border in Switzerland described Friedrichshafen as transformed into a "sea of flames," with giant plumes of smoke rising into the air and violent explosions rocking the whole countryside.

Friedrichshafen is a prime target, and has received its appropriate share of attention in the aerial offensive. Last night's assault was the heaviest on record, however. Aided by clear weather, the Allied bombers went to great lengths in dispersing this war component from the Nazi military machine.

In this town lies the main plant of the Luftschiffbau, the radio location manufacturing firm which turns out the bulk of Germany's Radar equipment. Close by are four factories of the Dornier bomber company, and the Maybach diesel works.

Four-engined American fortresses attacking a German airfield at Avord, 130 miles south of Paris, and other craft winging against targets even closer to the French capital bore the brunt of the twelfth successive day's onslaughts against Europe, and fighter bombers rounded over wide areas.

Matter Of Days
In addition to Friedrichshafen, royal air force bombers attacked

Stuttgart and went after railway yards in Belgium and France during the night. Other planes continued the steady mining of enemy waters. Numerous factors including the uninterrupted air offensive led to the state of predictions in various European capitals that the great Allied over-water attack now is but a matter of days at most.

In Stockholm, a Swedish naval expert named Capt. Karl Henrik said:

"The attack will be made between May 2 and 17th, probably by day, with the main assault being aimed across the English channel."

Pravda, published in Moscow, said succinctly that "conditions are favorable now," and the Berlin correspondent for the Swiss newspaper, Die Tat added:

"Foreign newspapers in the German capital are betting on the invasion occurring between May 6 and June 7."

No two prognosticators agreed upon the same date, which means that the most carefully guarded secret of the war is still a secret.

Camp Reynolds Soldier Is Given Honesty Award

GREENVILLE, Pa., April 28.—For his honesty at Camp Reynolds, a soldier received a commendation from his commanding officer, an eight-day furlough and a reward of $20.

While working on a salvage detail, Pvt. William Malone, of 5316 Savor Court, St. Louis, Mo., found two wallets containing $130. He turned the wallets over to his superior officer and when the ownership was determined they responded with a ten dollar reward each, after which he received a commendation and an eight-day furlough from Col. W. W. Robertson.

Several Killed In Beirut Shooting

LONDON, April 28.—(INS)—Shots fired in front of government house at Beirut killed a number of persons and seriously injured others, a Reuters dispatch revealed today. The shooting occurred while crowds gathered in the streets of the Syrian city to cheer newly-elected deputies arriving to attend parliament.

Thirty Soldiers Are Baptised In Italian War Area

NEW YORK, April 28.—(INS)—Thirty American soldiers were baptised today in the muddy waters off the Anzio beachhead in western Italy, a CBS correspondent reported in a broadcast describing the "strange scene" within the sound of shellfire.

"You threaded your way through barbed wire," he said, "and watched a line of 30 American soldiers wading hip-deep into the dirty green breakers. They were all receiving baptism by immersion from Capt. Leary Bailey, a chaplain from Chandler, Okla., who, with his hand over their mouths, ducked each man backwards into the water."

The distant shellfire came no closer and two planes circling over the beachhead didn't hesitate long enough to disturb the rites.

Avery Explains His Defiance

CHICAGO, April 28.—(INS)—Sewell L. Avery, chairman of the board of Montgomery Ward & Co., offered an explanation today of his reason for defying Attorney General Francis Biddle when the latter demanded the company's books and records.

Avery's refusal to turn over the books to the government, which seized the plant Wednesday, resulted in his eviction from the plant.

"I knew of no other way to demonstrate that I would not accept their pretense of authority," Avery declared.

"I find it almost irresistible to fight what I think is an injustice. To do so satisfies something within me."

"You don't have to believe me when I say I am not dominated by financial considerations. It just happens to be the case."

Avery, the son of a well-to-do lumber and shipping man, collects a salary of more than $100,000-a-year from Montgomery Ward.

Wampum High Has Annual Concert

Interesting Concert-Program Presented In Gymnasium On Thursday Evening

An appreciative audience attended the annual concert of the Wampum high school, presented Thursday evening at eight o'clock in the gymnasium of the school, under the direction of Betty Boyer.

For approximately an hour and forty-five minutes the assembly enjoyed musical selections of both classic and patriotic nature. This was the ninth annual concert to be presented at the school, each year in the spring.

Pupils of the high school participated in the concert, with Alice Mae Hairhoger as mistress-of-ceremonies. Dorothy Johnson was in charge of the twirls for the major band. Janice Marshall was tip-band mascot and Dorothy Ippolito was the Statute of Liberty.

Miss Boyer was assisted by other members of the faculty. Irvin Holmes is the school principal.

Roosevelt No Longer Needs Daily Attention

Vice Admiral McIntire's Trip To Capital Indicates President Is Improved

WASHINGTON, April 28.—(INS)—Vice Admiral Ross T. McIntire, President Roosevelt's personal physician, left the President about a week ago at his vacation retreat and spent the past week in Washington. It was learned today.

This was taken to indicate that the President is in good health and no longer requires the daily attention of his physician. He is still "somewhere in the south," however.

At the end of his third week of absence from Washington, Admiral McIntire left Washington again today.

Flood Reaching Missouri And Illinois Areas

ST. LOUIS, April 28.—(INS)—Many residents of Illinois and Missouri were warned to evacuate their homes today as the rising Mississippi and Missouri rivers threatened to equal the high marks of last May when all records for 99 years were shattered.

More than 750,000 acres of land in the two states were under water as heavy rains in north central Missouri caused the already swollen Missouri to reach new highs.

Residents of the Paria DuPont drainage and levee district, outside the town of Dupon, Ill., and residents of the Chouteau island and Harrisville drainage and levee districts were warned to evacuate their families and livestock.

REAL RAILROADING

Fifteen Die In Navy Ship Fire

Pharmacist 3-c Edgar Johnson Administers To Victims Until Overcome

NORFOLK, Va., April 28.—(INS)—The Navy made public today the names of 15 civilian workers who died in a fire in the hold of a naval vessel at the Norfolk Naval Yard last night. Twenty other persons were injured in the blaze which lasted for more than two hours.

Most of the dead were victims of suffocation.

Hero of the fire was Edgar B. Johnson, pharmacist, third class, (address unknown) stationed at the navy yard dispensary. Johnson went into the hold of the ship and gave artificial respiration for two hours until he was overcome.

Members of the Grand International Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers met on Thursday in the blue room of the Y.W.C.A. for an all-day meeting.

The morning session, commencing at 10 o'clock, was in charge of the president, Mrs. C. A. Probst. The ritual work of the lodge was duly inspected by Mrs. Mary Thompson of Baltimore, organizer and inspector of the national organization.

At noon the group adjourned for luncheon.

After luncheon, the members re-assembled, and the inspection of ritual work was continued until 3:45 o'clock.

Mrs. Thompson commended the lodge for their splendid ritual work, giving them a mark of 99 per cent.

On behalf of the local division, Mrs. H. S. Sherman presented Mrs. Thompson with a lovely gift.

The officers were attired in white, and wore pink carnations, but tonaires, furnished by the president.

Next regular meeting will be at the Y.W.C.A. Thursday, May 11, at 1:30 p.m.

Bimetallism Plan Is Urged

WASHINGTON, April 28.—(INS)—Chairman Francis H. Brownell of the board of directors of the American Smelting & Refining Co. told congress today that monetary stabilization would be vastly facilitated by the adoption of international bimetallism.

Testifying before the house foreign relations committee in favor of the Dewey monetary stabilization bill, Brownell predicted there would be a universal demand after the war for a return to hard money.

The Dewey measure endorsed by Brownell would set up a central revolving reconstruction fund of 500 million dollars which could be used in joint loans with other countries under the direction of a board of governors composed of congressional, state department and presidential appointees.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—(INS)—Sen. Burton K. Wheeler (D-Mont., renewed his campaign to defer fathers from the draft today by introducing a bill prohibiting the draft of fathers who had reached the age of 30 years on May 1, 1944.

The bill also provides that in the drafting of younger fathers, those under 26 shall be taken before those between the ages of 26 and 30 years.

The bill also would provide for demobilization of fathers before single men.

College Grid Coaches Vexed

Stagnant Mood Of Rule
Makers Termed Harmful
To Sport By Leaders

URGE REVISION OF
CODE BEFORE FALL

By LAWTON CARVER
(International News Service Staff Writer)
NEW YORK, April 28.—Some of the nation's outstanding football coaches are in a rebellious mood. They are fed up with sitting back complacently under the domination of a do-nothing collegiate rules committee, which is content with what one coach calls "stagnation for the duration," while the National Professional League makes changes to give the cash-and-carry football business the finest rule-book ever written.

The rules committee governing the campus game has frozen its rules in 1941, but unless the growing cry of the coaches for revisions is heeded the coaches may take matters into their own hands next fall by entering into "pre-game gentlemen's agreement" to alleviate a situation which they believe is harmful to the sport.

The quotations come from Lou Little, head coach at Columbia University and for a dozen years chairman of the football coaches' rules committee, not to be confused with the general rules committee. The committee headed by Little can only make recommendations to the general rules committee.

Press Act When Necessary
Little urges the rules-makers to meet before next fall and make certain necessary revisions in the collegiate code. The coaches are holding in the general direction of Bill Bingham of Harvard, chairman of the general rules committee, and at the same time keeping an eye on the professionals who only a few days ago altered their rules along the very line sought by the collegiate master-minds.

The biggest squawk of them all centers around the rule governing the out-of-bounds kick-off.

"The coaches suggest the virtual elimination of the out-of-bounds kick-off," Coach Little said. "They propose that the receiving team be given the ball on the 50-yard line or penalizing the kicking team 10 yards and forcing it to kick again. If succeeding kick-offs go out of bounds, further 10-yard penalties should be exacted until the kicking team has its one chance to receive the kick-off in bounds, and a three-inch dirt tee should be permitted."

Stirring Tradition
"As the rule has stood during late years, with the receiving team gaining possession on its own 35-yard line after an out-of-bounds kick-off, we might as well as have had no kick-off in the game, and the kick-off happens to be a stirring and traditional feature of football," said Little.

The college coaches also would permit forward passing from any point behind the line of scrimmage and permit the defending team to advance the ball upon recovering a free ball. They have some other suggestions to make, and clearly feel from the tenor of their beliefs that the professionals have the better game as the rules now stand.

CHURCH BOWLERS ENJOY BANQUET

Several score members of the Church Bowlers League last night attended the annual dinner of the organization at Sylvan Heights. Following the excellent dinner an election was held. Herb Samuels was named president, Henry Broad, vice president, William Ellis, secretary and Cliff Young, treasurer. High lance U. P. captured the 1943-44 championship.

Joe Weller received the door award which was a bowling ball presented by Earl Wimer. Other awards were presented because of various highs, as follows:

Three game high, First U. P. 2420; One game high, First Presbyterian, 904; Individual high for season, Joe Dudek, 157; Individual high, one game, Orren Shearer, 267 and Individual high, three games, Lyle Hughes, 564.

The officers who guided the league during the season just ended were: An Mack, president; Herb Samuels, vice president; William Ellis, secretary and Chester White, treasurer.

Willbur Moore, star of the Washington Redskins, has been assigned to the San Diego (Cal.) Marine Corps base for training.

Legion Junior Leaguers To Meet

Organization For Coming Year To Be Effected At Meeting
Tonight

Plans for the opening of the American Legion Junior League here will be discussed at a meeting of the team sponsors, managers, and players in the Legion Home this evening at 8 o'clock. Chairman Earl Moffatt, of the Perry S. Gaston Post committee announced today.

At this time, the team rosters must be presented and there will be a discussion of the opening date for the league, along with other plans. Lunch will be served. Moffatt states.

QUAKER CITY BOB MEETS COAL MINER

CHICAGO, April 28.—(INS)—Bob Montgomery, New York version, of the lightweight champion, meets Joey Penella of Tamaqua, Pa., tonight in a 10-round non-title match that will bring boxing back to Chicago's Coliseum for the first time in two years.

Penella, who agreed to weigh in at more than the 135-pound limit of the Philadelphia Negro title claims, was expected to give Montgomery little more than a good workout.

Penella has been beaten twice by Montgomery in previous fights.

Philadelphia Bob may be making his last fight for the duration as he is scheduled to report for army duty soon.

Pari-Mutuel To Join Billion 'Industry'

NEW YORK, April 28.—(INS)—Pari-mutuel betting is destined to join America's group of billion-dollar industries in 1944. A racing official, though refusing to lend his name to the prediction, characterized it as "inevitable."

The fantastic start of the 190-day New York turf season, coupled with complete returns from Florida, has compelled an upward revision of the most optimistic estimates. Solid basis for expectation that the billion mark will be passed is found in the $710,799,432 total for mutuel wagering in this country last year.

Match Armstrong For Capital Bout

WASHINGTON, April 28.—(INS)—Aaron Perry, Washington's sensational lightweight, and Henry Armstrong, former triple titleholder were signed today for a 10-round match at Griffin stadium May 22.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS LAND

Every day there's something new. Years ago Bob Fitzsimmons was noted for the Solar Plexus and Kid McCoy made famous the Corkscrew punch. Fritzie Zivich drew a lot of attention with his Bolo sock. Now comes the Blomper pitch of Pirates Rip Sewell. In fact, there's one third baseman, Ripky Higgins, an American League Tiger who camped a dozen years in the National who is all out for Sewell and his balloon ball. "I could stand with my mouth open and watch Rip throw it," he said recently in Chicago. "In fact, I did" the Bengal added. In an exhibition game against the Pirates, Rip pitched to Fritzie Zivich and he hit him on the head but he pulled it on another batter Higgins stated. "That was the first time I had seen it." Higgins believes that with his amazing control, Rip ought to win 21 games this season.

Perry Gaston post, American Legion
To have a Junior Baseball league this season. Sharon will also return to the field. Here's what Johnny Pepe writes in the Sharon Herald: "Plans are being completed for the opening of the Shenango Valley Junior Baseball season in about three weeks. A meeting of managers is expected to be called next week when final plans will be drafted. The league set-up will be made up of two sections, one a league made up of players from 10 through 14 years and the other circuit including boys from 15 through 16. About 18 teams are expected to be entered in the two leagues. The foregoing should be warning to Earl Moffatt and other Perry Gaston post members there's opposition ahead."

The condition book for the thirty day Spring race meeting of the West Virginia Jockey Club, which opens at Wheeling Downs on May 25th and runs through July 4th, is now being distributed to horsemen and presages a new all-time high in purse distribution. Over $123,000 in purse money will be paid out during the thirty day period.

Jimmy Ellison, the politically scarred veteran of the first war is now a resident of the Far West. Reports say he is a shipyard worker. Indications are that now the folk now Morgan Waters has a "spot" in Las Vegas he'll find some New Castle faces gazing at him now and then. . . . Rube Jones, erstwhile baseball umpire, strolled through the main street several days ago. He was a prominent arbiter when many of the present ball players were creeping. Fields where City circuit teams will use will not officially become known until Monday night. . . . Some of the teams would like to use George Washington school plot.

Ruffles Johns, who is undergoing treatment at Deshon hospital, but after 39 months' service, may be discharged soon, according to reports. Most of his time in service has been on overseas duty. Before he entered the service he was well known as a gate-crasher. He is known to most of the sport and stage celebrities. Incidentally Johns has entered a contest conducted by a Hollywood studio to find a double to succeed the late Rudolph Valentino. He played football here. No doubt Ruffles will have the well wishes of this section in his latest venture.

(International News Service Staff Writer)
WASHINGTON, April 28.—This particular outburst no doubt is going to be quite without distinction because, as Lt. Col. L. S. MacPhail explained today, he's the only man in Washington "who can be talked to at any hour of the day or night."

He didn't decline to be talked to about after-the-war baseball either. He merely said the subject wasn't worth discussing.

At the same time MacPhail wasn't at all evasive about his connection with the Dodgers or a possible purchase of the Cubs from P. K. Wrigley when the war's over, a subject that has been bandied about at some little length from time to time.

He doesn't know whether Wrigley would sell the Cubs. He doesn't know or say he doesn't have the money to buy them. He has no connection with the Dodgers. Outside of that, everything's all right.

Tore-up Contract
"I tore up a five-year contract when I left Ebbets field at the close of 1942," he said. "I haven't heard of anybody running around trying to pick up the pieces. As a matter of fact, I understand Rickey (Branch Rickey, the devout money-changer) has a five-year contract himself."

So, so far as MacPhail is concerned, the Brooklyn incident is ended. But maybe it would have ended anyhow, because MacPhail was in there owing to the fact that the banks wanted him to be. And by 1942 the club was out of the "terra cotta" and into the "azure," by which time it would be looking for a man of what is known as Rickey's vision.

Possibly Not For Sale
We need only mention that Rickey's vision calls for men of ambition who are willing to start at the bottom and doggedly stay there, until notified they are dispensed with.

MacPhail wasn't interested in that phase.

The Cub situation, frankly, we know almost nothing about, Wrigley has no more interest in the club than he might have in a pin-ball game.

"Okay, okay," said MacPhail, impatient, "maybe he does or doesn't want to sell the club. Maybe he'll even reach the point where he'll want to sell it. But all I know is that I have no information that such a sale is in his mind."

It seems, to state the facts in the order of their occurrence, that first we had Pearl Harbor, then we had MacPhail informing the War Department he'd be gratified to do anything where it thought he'd be of the slightest use.

Tried To Abduct Kaiser
It finally commissioned him and gave him his "orders." He'd quietly done a lot since then, at least by contrast with the turbulent, boisterous party who went blustering out there one fine day at Ebbets field and hit an umpire on the "knee." Nor the kind, either, who would seriously set out to abduct the Kaiser during that last bit of disorder we had in Europe.

We mean to say that, in spite of any reports to the contrary, this MacPhail is not only all right, he could practically have a monopoly on it.

NE-CA-HI ENTERS AMBRIDGE MEET

New Castle High will be represented in the track and field meet which will get under way Saturday at Ambridge. It was stated today that the local team did very well in the meet at East Palestine, Less than a point separated them from the winning East Palestine team which until they had lost to Washington recently had not bowed in a dual meet in 19 years. Wednesday's affair was a triangular meet with East Palestine leading third place.

It is likely that Penn will be unable to participate in Saturday's events.

Penn Relays Get Under Way Today At Philadelphia

By PAUL GARDNER
(International News Service Staff Writer)

PHILADELPHIA, April 28.—Some 3,000 young American athletes were all wearing the same sort of uniforms today—abbreviated ones—as the 50th Annual Penn Relays, scheduled for two hectic days, began at Franklin Field.

From service camps, from colleges, from high schools came these sturdy disciples of speed and of strength came to the races.

The college quarter-mile relay championships of America, with New York University defending against such challenges as the United States Military Academy, Cornell, Dartmouth, Princeton, and the United States Coast Guard, Columbia, Loyola Field of Virginia, Camp Lee, Pennsylvania and Hampton Naval Station, was one of the big features of opening day.

Hunter In Special Race
Olie Hunter of the Columbia Middlesex, national indoor three-mile titleholder, and winner of the event a year ago, was in the Penn Relay two-mile special along with a high-class field.

The high and prep school championships of America, the shot put and discus without the presence of Al Blozis and Archie Harris, respectively, and the Brint Medley College relay rated high in the excitement of the afternoon.

And there was plenty of excitement. To give you an idea of the pull of the Penn Relays the high school relay championship, a single event, drew 60 teams or 300 boys. Multiply that sort of thing and you will realize that on occasion there are more people on the field than in the stands. However, it was believed that there would be at least 25,000 in attendance tomorrow.

Hulse Seeks New Record
Bull Hulse, America's fastest outdoor runner with his 4:06 at Baldwin-Wallace in Berea, O., in 1943, is out for a world record at three-quarters of a mile.

Rudy Simms, the New York University speedster, and Al Daily, national junior 800-meter titleholder, were among those set to extend Hulse's present record of the American 800-meter laurels. Hulse, representing the New York Athletic Club, was determined to erase the mark of 2:58.7 of Paul Moore of Stanford from the books. Hulse felt he could do it if he "were on the beam."

Hume Twins To Run
The mile college relay will be a money with favored Michigan, Penn, Chicago, Penn State, Dartmouth, Army, Villanova, N.Y.U., Princeton, Cornell, Tufts and Rochester in the ranks. The Hume twins and Bob Uter, national indoor 600-yard king, will be on that Michigan relay.

While the quality in the Penn Relays may have suffered somewhat the quantity, surprisingly enough, is right on a par with pre-war days.

Tobin's No-Hit Feat First Since Warneke In '41

NEW YORK, April 28.—(INS)—Jim Tobin, 31-year-old veteran right-hander from Oakland, Calif., who toils for the Boston Braves, has earned some kind of ranking as the champion all-around ball player among the pitchers currently in the business.

The burly exponent of a knuckler that butterflies up to the plate as though yanked by fiducy strings has entered the Baseball Hall of Fame on two counts—the last being yesterday when he handcuffed the Brooklyn Dodgers with the first no-hit game since Lon Warneke beat Cincinnati for the St. Louis Cardinals in 1941.

He set the Dodgers down by 2 to 0, allowing his old pal of Pittsburgh, Paul Waner, to get on base twice through walks. He also hit a home run to help his own cause and with the homer reminded his few followers at Braves field yesterday that only last year he set a record for pitchers by hitting three homers in one game.

Darkens Browns
His performance yesterday completely overshadowed even the continuing stampee of the St. Louis Browns, who broke the American league record for victories at the start of the season by making it eight in a row against the Cleveland Indians, 5 to 1.

In his first start of the year, he allowed the New York Giants to get three hits but lost the game by 2 to 1 by virtue of a Mel Ott homer. In his next start he gave the Braves their only victory up to yesterday. On that occasion, last Sunday, he held the Philadelphia Phillies to one hit and beat them on a shut-out.

Potter Downs Indians
His record now is 25 consecutive scoreless innings and only four hits in 26 innings.

His victim yesterday was Fred Ostermiller, who pitched a five-hitter.

Nelson Potter hurled the Browns' eighth win in a row and effectively scattered seven Cleveland hits to pull his club within one win of a tie for the major league season-opening mark held jointly by the 1918 Giants and the 1940 Dodgers.

Bob Swift's two-base hit with two on in the 12th gave the Detroit Tigers a 2 to 0 win over the Chicago White Sox as Hal Newhouser beat Thornton Lee in a hurling duel in the day's only other American league game.

The National league schedule was completed with a 3 to 2 victory for St. Louis over Cincinnati.

WARMERDAM TO SEEK NEW MARK

DES MOINES, Ia., April 28.—(INS)—The thirty-fifth annual Drake Relays Open in Des Moines today on a soggy track which forebodes little if any record-breaking.

More than 1,000 athletes from 126 universities, colleges and high schools have been entered for the two-day competition.

The possibility that Ensign Cornelius Warmerdam, world's champion pole vaulter, might exceed the Drake mark of 14 feet 1 1/2 inch was anticipated. In that eventuality his effort will go down as merely an outstanding performance, since Drake Relays records in the university and college divisions must be established by university and college men.

'Cellar Colts' Money Earners

Quarter Million Paid For Three Equines Who Proved Fizzles

MAN O'WAR BEST
RACING BARGAIN

By JOHN CASHMAN
I. N. S. Sports Writer

NEW YORK, April 28.—Ever since the Greek-American millionaire sportsman, William G. Heiss, bought an untitled colt named Papyrus for $66,000, cynical experts of the turf game have been displaying records purported to prove that bargain-basement colts, bought for insignificant sums, are the ones who make the money.

This argument seems to be sustained in part by the record available. A plug, New Broom, bought for $75,000, went to the post once and finished far out of the money. Seventy-five thousand dollars was paid for Hustle On, who never reached the post. Sixty-five thousand dollars was laid on the line for Broadway Limited. It never even earned its out-ticket. There was a total of $210,000 put out for three horses who, among them, did not earn one red cent.

Alsab, bought for $700 earned $349,315.

It's hard to say what particular horse was the biggest bargain in turf history, but many settle for Man o' War. Big Red earned a million dollars in stud alone. In two years of racing Man o' War, bought for $5,000, was beaten once. This was when Upset took a race from Big Red who was left at the post. Man o' War won $249,465.

Phar Lap, the Australian performer, was selected at a sale in New Zealand for only $800. It was not long after Phar Lap began to vibrate.

Phar Lap was almost six years old when he was brought to America. He ran only one race in this country—the $50,000 Agua Caliente Handicap—and won it hands down. Phar Lap earned $332,000. Phar Lap developed massive cramps and died.

Mr. Khayam was one of the greatest and cheapest buys, priced $400. He won plenty.

Exterminator is a horse of song and story, since he actually was bought as a work horse for $250 and retired with earnings of $252,996. Exterminator, the work horse, not only won that Derby but went on to become the most celebrated handicap runner in history.

BOB MALLORY DEFERRED

Bob Mallory, former University of Pittsburgh football and baseball star now with the Cincinnati Reds, has been granted a 30-day deferment because of his wife's serious illness. He originally was scheduled for Naval induction at Pittsburgh, Friday.

Admit Sanctions Against Sweden Are Threatened

WASHINGTON, April 28.—(INS)—It was officially acknowledged today that Sweden has been confronted with the threat of economic sanctions by the United Nations, to force a stoppage of her shipments of ball-bearings to Germany.

Secretary of State Hull has characterized as unsatisfactory the Swedish reply refusing to stop these shipments. The situation is aggravated by the fact that the shipments tend to offset the attacks of Allied bombers on the German ball-bearing center, Schweinfurt, where raids were resumed this week.

Can't Find Home For His Family In Chicago, Ill.

CHICAGO, April 28.—(INS)—Edward M. Gordon of New York appeared today through the newspapers for a Chicago landlord who would waive the "adults only" provision.

Doctors have told him, Gordon said, that his four-year-old son, suffering from rheumatic fever, may suffer a relapse because of the separation.

Transferred to Chicago three weeks ago, Gordon has been unable to find a home for his family.

Hint Of Scope Of Huge Bomb Raid On Europe

LONDON, April 28.—(INS)—A hint as to the scope and power of today's tremendous aerial blows against the continent—the twelfth successive day of attack—came from the German radio chain which imposed a broadcasting blackout even more stringent than on most previous days.

Reuter's news agency reported that the radio silence from all occupied Europe was "complete."

TWO PROMOTIONS

WASHINGTON, April 28.—(INS)—The White House announced today that President Roosevelt has nominated Maj. Gen. Lewis H. Brereton, commander of the Ninth Air Force and Maj. Gen. Barney McK. Giles, chief of the air force staff, to be lieutenant-generals. He also nominated Brig. Gen. Elwood R. Quesada, chief of the Ninth Air Support command to be a Major General.

Gen. Brereton, a native of Pittsburgh, Pa., has been an army flyer since 1913. He was in France during World War II and after Pearl Harbor command the Tenth Air Force in India later taking over the Ninth which is now based in Great Britain.

Senate Committee Reports Measure On Contract Action

WASHINGTON, April 28.—(INS)—The Senate military affairs committee today favorably reported the George-Murray contract termination bill and will seek speedy passage in the Senate.

The measure, which is designed to enable the government to quickly settle war contracts as being rushed so that in event the war with Germany ends unexpectedly, a shift can be made to civilian production by many firms.

AN HONEST MAYOR

SOMERS POINT, N. J.—(INS)—Mayor Fred Chapman, chairman of the Civilian Defense Council of Somers Point, fined himself $2 for a blackout violation. He neglected to turn off lights when he went to visit his son in a nearby naval hospital and was absent from home during an air raid drill. He excused five other violators.

Indiscriminate coughing and sneezing spread infection.

Contribute $5,519 To Red Cross At Camp Reynolds

GREENVILLE, Pa., April 28.—Camp Reynolds military and civilian personnel contributed $5,519.28 during the annual American Red Cross mobilization campaign here last month. It was announced this week by S. Clair Borland, Red Cross field director in camp.

The total amount compares favorably with sums reported by other posts all over the country. The organization is most grateful for this support," Mr. Borland declared.

Tabulation of contributions received is as follows:

Civilians, $810; officers, $1,478.41; voluntary contributions by enlisted personnel, $3,230.76.

A new plastic sole for men's and women's footwear has been developed which retains the same rigidity and consequent walking ease of other sole materials, yet at the same time is completely impervious to moisture and keeps a better appearance.
